SERT - Boilerplate Possibilities for Job Advertisements

1. Utah State University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer, sensitive to the needs of dual-career applicants. The University was recently chosen as a National Science Foundation ADVANCE Gender Equity Program recipient. The University is sensitive to the needs of dual-career applicants and is dedicated to recruiting stellar candidates from a diverse pool including women, minorities, veterans and people with disabilities. USU offers competitive salaries and outstanding medical, retirement and professional benefits (<http://personnel.usu.edu/>). USU is in Logan, Utah, a semi-rural city in an Alpine mountain valley with a community of 100,000, offering ample opportunities for family-friendly professional life. Ski resorts, lakes, rivers, and mountains in the area make it one of the finest outdoor recreation environments in the nation.

2. Utah State University is a Carnegie-I research school of 20,000 students, nestled in a mountain valley 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. Opportunities for a wide range of outdoor activities are plentiful. Housing costs are at or below national averages, and Cache Valley provides a supportive environment for families and balanced personal/professional life. USU offers competitive salaries and outstanding medical, retirement and professional benefits (see <http://personnel.usu.edu/> for details). Women, minority, veteran and disabled candidates are encouraged to apply, and USU is sensitive to the needs of dual-career couples. Utah State University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer, with a National Science Foundation ADVANCE Gender Equity program, committed to increasing diversity among students, faculty, and all participants in university life.
