Principal Ezra Christensen,

Rexburg, Idaho.

My dear Sir:-

I am informed that Miss Eliza Jenson has applied for the position of Instructor in Domestic Science and Arts in your Academy. I have pleasure in certifying to Miss Jenson's qualifications for the position, and to commend her, without reservation, to your most favorable consideration. She is especially well qualified for the work required in a position of that kind. She attended the Brigham Young University for 2-1/2 years, pursuing a normal course. She has also been a student of the Agricultural College for 2-1/2 years, and has completed her course in Domestic Arts, receiving her certificate of graduation in June. In addition to the distinctive training of her course, her work has covered such subjects as zoology, geology, botany, algebra, plane geometry, rhetoric, literature, etc., besides the more elementary subjects. She has had eight years' experience as a teacher.

Miss Jenson is a thorough, earnest, conscientious student, and is highly recommended by her instructors. Should you employ her, she will, I am sure, give you efficient service in the work of her department. Moreover, her experience as a teacher, the breadth of her training, and her strong character and exemplary conduct will make her of great value to you in a general way, particularly in her associations with the girls.

Very truly yours,

President.
