GEO. OSBORNE TURK, Director.

ST. LOUIS JOURNAL PUBLISHING CO., Publishers
Olive and Second Streets

St. Louis, May 26, 1906

Pres. Wm. J. Kerr,
Logan, Utah.

Dear Professor:

Enclosed is an outline of a proposed Home Study Course in Agriculture, which the JOURNAL is desirous of placing before its readers. The subjects are arranged on a plan that suggested itself to us as being as nearly as possible to the natural method of study.

We wish that from your large experience in the teaching of Agricultural subjects, you would mark your criticism and suggestions on the enclosed blanks. We would be pleased to have any suggestions you may offer as to changes of order, addition to, or substitutions in the Courses.

We especially desire your suggestions as to the proper subjects to be taken up in pursuing the studies similar to those of the department with which you are connected.

Please mark all changes you may judge advisable on the enclosed "Outlines" and return to us in the enclosed stamped envelope.

We wish to thank you in advance for any information you may give us that will help advance the cause of rural education. We have placed you on our mailing list, and will send another copy for the School Library if desired.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Geo. Osborne Turk', is written over the typed name 'Yours very truly,'.
