Jan. 15, 1904.

Bishop John Ralfsteen,
Clarkston, Utah.

My dear Sir:

I enclose herewith an announcement of the formal opening of the Department of Music of the Agricultural College of Utah on Jan. 23d, and have pleasure in sending you complimentary tickets for the same. For this opening, the services of the best musical artists of the state have been procured. The program will include some of the best selections ever rendered in this city. The event will be a notable one in the development of musical education in Utah, and particularly in this county.

We shall very much appreciate it if you will announce the concert at any of the public gatherings of your ward, and extend a cordial invitation to the people, in our behalf, to attend. I trust that we may have the pleasure of your presence.

With kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

President J. H. Linford,
B. Y. College, City.

My dear Sir:

I enclose herewith a brief announcement of the formal opening of the Department of Music of the College on Jan. 23d, and have pleasure in sending you complimentary tickets for the same.

We have found it necessary to make a small charge for admission in order to meet the expense of the musicians who will take part. While the general admission will be twenty-five cents, we have arranged to admit students for fifteen cents, and are pleased to extend to the students of the Brigham Young College the same advantage given our own students. The concert should be an exceptionally good one. I shall be pleased to have as many of the faculty and students of the Brigham Young College present as may be interested.

A member of the committee will call on you to ascertain what arrangements you desire made for the sale of tickets to your students.

Yours very truly,

President.

My dear Sir:

I enclose herewith a brief announcement of the formal opening of the Department of Music of the Agricultural College of Utah on Jan. 23d, and have pleasure in sending you complimentary tickets for the same. The concert will no doubt be an exceptionally good one, and we shall appreciate it if you can arrange to be present.

With kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Supt. J. A. Langton,
City.

My dear Sir:

I enclose herewith a brief announcement of the opening of the Department of Music of the College on Jan. 23d, and have pleasure in sending you complimentary tickets for the same. If it is not inconsistent with your regulations, I shall very much appreciate it if you can have an announcement of the entertainment made in the schools. I am sending complimentary tickets to the principals.

Thanking you in advance for any assistance you may be able to give us, and trusting that you may be able to attend the concert, I am, with kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

President.

Dear Friend:

I enclose herewith a brief announcement of the formal opening of the Department of Music of the Agricultural College of Utah on Jan. 23d. You will observe that arrangements have been made for the best musical artists of the state to participate in the concert. I am sure that the event will be in some respects the most notable one of the kind in the history of the county. I shall be pleased to have you attend. I have pleasure in sending you herewith complimentary tickets.

Yours very truly,

President.
