FOREWORD

May this book, by bringing to us happy recollections of our school year, nineteen hundred thirty-six, establish a closer bond of friendship among classmates.

Dear Douglas
Although we have not had a chance to become very well acquainted this year I hope we will next year. Wishing you much success & happiness.

Dear Douglass:
 I know you are not "not"
 because I am (your "friend")

They're Off!

Into a new world . . . a world of romance, adventure, happiness, strife, and glory goes the class of thirty-six

Because of the many talents presented you by your forefathers, because of your courage, and because of you yourselves . . . you are successful. However, we cannot give these all the credit. There is the individual and the class as a group, the executive head . . . Jimmie Greener, Dorothy Lloyd, Glen Guymon, and Orpha Faylor.

With the crest of the senior ring as an inspiration, each member of the class becomes a part of one great achievement . . . cosmopolitan culture!

Lettermen's Club

Boys!

Here's a real boys' club made up of boys, for boys and by boys.

Every inch of every man in the club is an earned inch. The requirements of the club are strict. And what an initiation! When a fellow is made a member of the club and receives his sweater . . . a sweater to be proud of . . . he really knows he's a member.

Forty-eight

Lettermen's Club

As in previous years, the lettermen's club has held up its good name by being one of the most active clubs in the school. Sponsoring a dance, presenting a good assembly, and taking over discipline outside of school are enough notwithstanding the club's possession of three-fourths of the school heroes.

Dorothy's Diary

Sept. 3, 1935: Ho, hum! School again. And classes the very first day of the year.

Sept. 5: The new principal introduced the same old faculty—mostly. Carl Olsen, wearing a straw hat, made 387 mistakes in grammar. And we all laughed and laughed, 'cause we knowed he wasn't as ignorant as that. Byron Thompson rendered a soprano solo, "Come to the Little White School on the Hill."

Sept. 13: The Handshake Party—so we shook hands.

Sept. 20: That noisy boys' league! Jimmie Greener was about worn out waving his arms for attention.

Oct. 2: Goody! Goody! There was no water, and sixth and seventh periods were dismissed. The Carbonicle came out with "Hot Tips"—so hot that somebody got all burned up.

Oct. 4: A radio was installed in the history room, and everybody tried to transfer to history.

Oct. 5: Football team took South High. Just one win after another.

Oct. 11: Term end. Why do I get so low in Chem? . . . But anyway we beat Richfield, 12 to 6.

Oct. 21: Deer season. Our manly, bold hunters began to tell how big the one was they just missed. And did you hear about George Young's hunting trip? "Sh!" Ask Pres Summerhays.

Oct. 22: The downfall of Mighty Moab.

Oct. 24: Teachers away to Salt Lake. How we missed them! That's what you think.

Oct. 29: The Chess club met for the first time—and 742 students simultaneously thought of calling the lads "chess-nuts." Bright idea.

Nov. 1: The Carbonettes had a circus today, and Morgan High was stepped on by a dinosaur, and, gee, that was a good Hallowe'en dance.

Nov. 8: A negro quartet in assembly imitated a calliope like nobody's business.

Nov. 11: Down to the Tabernacle and heard a fine Armistice Day speech by the Reverend Mr. Evans.

Nov. 12: Most of us went to the "Bonnie" to see Elizabeth Bergner in "Escape Me Never." Wish I could act as well.

Nov. 15: Delta Theta's great "Variety Show."

Nov. 16: Another scalp for Pres Summerhays! Jordan lost by that same old 12-to-6 score.

Nov. 22: Second term becomes history. How can I take tests when the Boxelder game is tomorrow?

Nov. 23: Special train to Salt Lake, to see Carbon put up a great fight against a slightly better team.

Nov. 27: Mr. Thompson again starred in a faculty program . . . Thanksgiving dance in the evening. We felt thankful—for the vacation.

Dec. 12: The new school building is being started. Watched the PWA workers boil water for the concrete and was glad I could work indoors.

Dec. 20: Last day of school—until 1936.

Jan. 6: Didn't seem like two weeks, I'll say.

Jan. 17: Only one more semester to go now.

Jan. 24: Everybody liked Superintendent Reeves' talk on accuracy, neatness, courtesy, and loyalty. I highly resolved to be a better student.

Dorothy's Diary

Jan. 27: "State" tests for hours and hours. I wore out three pencils and was surprised to learn how much I don't know.

Jan. 29: One of those good assemblies—a film showing the fish and game of Utah. Made us all yearn for the summer time . . . Juniors buzzing around the Silver Moon and trying to keep the decoration scheme a profound secret.

Feb. 7: Red-letter day. Finger-waves and new dresses—and dates . . . Sophomore impromptu program. And then in the evening—oh, what a Prom!

Feb. 14: Did you ever see so many newspapers? The Publication Dance was a "newsy" affair, in at least two ways.

Feb. 21: Delta Theta used "Friendship" as the theme of a great show . . . And we marched with the CCC today and tasted cookies cooked by a CCC cook.

Feb. 28: The Seniors Hopped—at a leap-year party.

Mar. 1: Somebody ought to write a song called "End-of-the-Term Blues." I wonder why everybody laughed when I told the teacher that an omelet is a charm worn around the neck in India?

Mar. 6: The Sophomores won the class debates. . . . Carl Olsen was cultivating his golf game.

Mar. 11: Can we ever forget that tap-dancing fair from the B. Y. U.?

Mar. 12: Naughty! Naughty! The solid geometry class sluffed. Hardy Roberts would have, only he was absent today.

Mar. 19: Solo eliminations for the contest.

Mar. 20: More eliminations.

Mar. 21: Nearly everybody eliminated now, except Jack and Cal.

Mar. 27: Boys and girls exchanged league programs. A rare treat for both.

April 2: Ambition will win. Saw the pigskin chasers out practicing for next season.

Apr. 3: Lee Gibson and Frank Owen misinterpreted the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet."

Apr. 7: Why are all the seniors crowding around the bulletin case? Oh, of course. It's the list of graduates.

Apr. 9: Intramural track meet today. (Wonder what "intramural" means.) Seniors won.

Apr. 16: Solo contests. Three Carbonettes gave out "information" to the visitors.

Apr. 17: More solos. More "information." More excitement. Trills and thrills.

Apr. 18: Regional band contest. Carbon "supremely, surpassingly, outstandingly superior"—or something like that.

Apr. 22: Musicians off for more glory in Grand Junction.

Apr. 25: Honors for Carbon at Grand Junction and Provo.

Apr. 28: What! No Logan trip? "Band Sheds Buckets of Tears."

May 1: This was the best Girls' Day in recorded history. Those girl teachers! That assembly program! That May Queen!

May 8: Our mothers came to school, but I hope they didn't learn too much about us.

May 15: This was the long-awaited day of awards—medals, certificates, letters.

May 22: The seniors' big moment, graduation. The class planned and presented its own program, and a good one, too. Attaboy, Jimmie; and Glen Guymon!

Humor

Don Watkins: I don't think education pays.
Mr. Bingham: Oh, it does unless you decide to be a school teacher.

Quentin Gardener believes all's fair in love and school.

Jimmie Greener is the one man in the world that can succeed by letting things slide.

"Don't be surprised," remarked Mrs. Jones to Don Hansen, "if you have a cold in the head. Even that's something."

Max Allred sez, "A girl's always one of three things: Hungry, thirty, or both."

Vic Silvagni sez, "Little girls should be seen and not hard."

In speaking to Calvin Simmons while in band, Mr. Williams said angrily, "I can't think of any instrument worse than a saxophone, and I hope no one else can."

Dottie Dalton is so dumb she thinks a smoked ham is a colored actor. But that's nothing; Karma Johnson is so dumb that she thinks a gin rickey is an Oriental taxicab.

We overheard Sam Dougherty say, "Lots of girls in this school look good enough to eat—and do they? Wow!"

Neva Williams: Jimmie dear, all the other men that I have gone with had either brains, position, good looks, or social rank, but I am going with you because I love you.

Remember—All is not sex that appeals.

What male faculty member is known as "Liza"?

As I looked upon the stair,
I saw a man who wasn't there.
He wasn't there again today.
Gosh, I wish he'd go away!

Did you hear the one about Mae West?

Lewis Tezak: Where is the population of Carbon County most dense?

Mr. Morgan: From the neck up.

"Tough luck," said the egg in the monastery. "Out of the frying pan into the friar."

V. E. Williams was exasperated by a couple of owls outside his window one night that said "To-who" instead of "To-whom."

When you started to read

this

I bet you thought

it was a poem.

Don't you

feel cheap

when you read

on and know

you are being fooled?

Thelma Faylor sez, "It's a mystery to me why a girl can't catch a ball like a man." But surely a man is so much larger and easier to catch.

What male faculty member is known around home as "Wug-gie"?

Mr. Wilson sez, "A son usually finishes college and his father about the same time."

We find that while Orpha Faylor was in California during the Christmas holidays, she landed a fish weighing about 155 pounds, standing about five feet nine inches tall (in its sock feet), and it has already spoken to her parents.

Henry Ruggeri: Do you think you can make me accept evolution by teaching it in school?

George Young: No, my boy; they teach spelling in school, don't they?

What's this we hear about a certain bachelor teacher getting a proposal this year and not accepting?

Dorothy Olsen sez, "One way a man can acquire a nice-sized vocabulary is to marry it."

Mr. Morgan: Why do women hold their chins while talking?

Mr. Merrill: To keep themselves from interrupting, I suppose.

Did you hear the one about the absent-minded professor who threw his cigarette into the bed, and jumped out the window?

Wiggo Axelgard reached across the table for the fourth time for a slice of bread. His mother was annoyed, and said, "Wiggo, how many times do I have to tell you to quit reaching for things like that with your hands? What do you think your tongue is for?"

Be it ever so humble, there's no shape like your own.

Dear Douglas:-

Well, Doug, I've known you for quite a long time and I've learned to like you a great deal. I think you have the stuff in you to go out and make a great name for yourself. When you reach the top, would you reach down and give a buddy a hand. The world is yours, kid, if you will put forth your best effort and never shuff the slightest of jobs.

I know our friendship will continue to grow and Compliments you even though I am graduating this year. We can be great friends this summer, can't we? of

If I had some of your personal magnetism and personality I would get along a lot better. Well, I guess I'll sign off, wishing you all a guy can wish, your long time friend
