I think the digital trend of the year should be NFL fails. After all, they started the #whyileft and #whyistayed movements, they're responsible for the #notyourmascot hashtag, and they've started all sorts of discussions on the internet this year about sexism, racism, abuse, etc.

We should start our own #NFLfails hashtag.

I've always wanted an #NFLfails hastag and now you've pointed out some really solid justification for it

Fail videos are pretty fantastic in general, but the social and political commentary that spun out from this is a strong argument for Trend of the Year. Not to mention the various memes, hashtags, videos, and jokes.

Is there an existing single form (hashtag, meme, etc.) that we can pull out for this?
