Huntsman Post - December 2014

The following is a historical representation of Huntsman Post Issues. Not all original issue content is still available online. Where content is available it is included on the pages following the email layout.

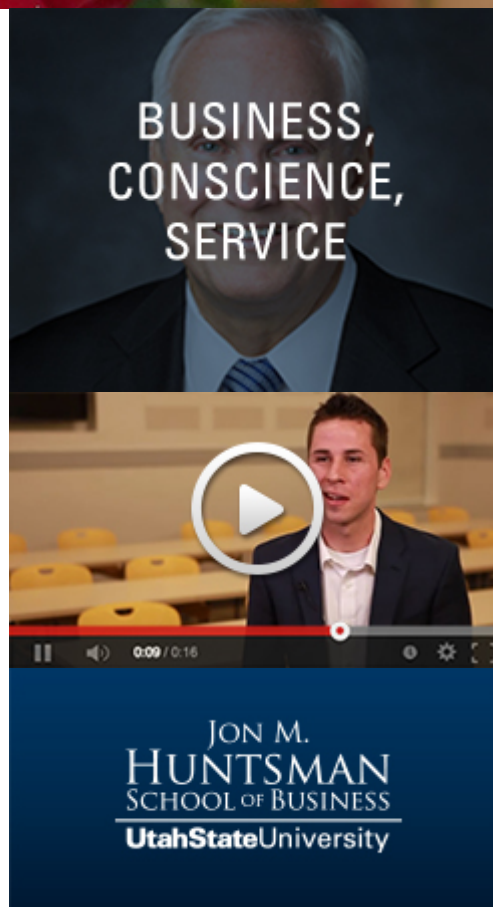

We would like to take a moment to wish you the happiest of holiday seasons. A few weeks ago, we had the honor of hosting Elder Bob Gay, head of the Perpetual Education Fund for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. And while he provided our students with lessons gleaned from his life in private equity, his message was about preparing for a life of service – a message especially appropriate for this season.

Our video this month highlights a student that went from being, in his own words, "an average teenager in Bountiful, Utah," to becoming the Huntsman School Scholar of the Year. Jim Allred is now working for a private equity firm in California. His drive and humility teach us what it takes for our students to have success.

We wish you every happiness this Holiday Season and throughout the coming year.
