W. J. Kerr,

President of A. C. Logan, Utah.

Dear Prest. Kerr:

In answer to your letters of inquiry concerning Oscar ~~Kerr~~^{Kemp}, I will say that he is a man of very fine personality, especially adapted to leadership in any line of work ⁱⁿ upon which he has made special preparation. As a student here in the University, he was a general favorite. I know nothing of his scholastic attainments further than that of his High School preparation here. He has spent some time in Europe preparing for a professional life as a vocalist. You will find him a man who will do his best. He may have a slight tendency to undertake more than he is capable of executing, but he is industrious, ambitious and progressive.

Kindly pardon the delay in this answer, as your communication to me was by an accident, misplaced and thereby lost sight of for a
