Dear Sir:-

Your letter came this evening announcing that I was not elected as a teacher in your music department. I must confess that I was somewhat surprised to learn that I was to be judged by a board of directors who do not know me. And to be up against one of your town boys; whose friends are members of the board; and who should naturally get first place.

It cost me - at your request - Two days pupils - as I could not make the train the day I left you - hotel and rail-road expenses to notify you that I was able to do the work; for which, I get word that I am out run.

Very Resp

E. David Mann
