Drying Towel

Mayah Reaveley
reaveley.mayah@ichsstudent.org

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.usu.edu/student_folklore_all

Recommended Citation
Reaveley, Mayah, "Drying Towel" (2017). USU Student Folklore Fieldwork. Paper 221.
https://digitalcommons.usu.edu/student_folklore_all/221

This G10: Riddling Questions is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Folklore Fieldwork at DigitalCommons@USU. It has been accepted for inclusion in USU Student Folklore Fieldwork by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@USU. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@usu.edu.
Drying Towel
Riddles

Informant: My name is Mayah Reaveley. I am sixteen years old and I am a junior at InTech Collegiate High School. I am participating in the early college program that the school provides. I live in North Logan, Utah and my favorite hobby is oil painting.

Context: I told this riddle to my mom on a Friday night in my bedroom after I had told her a joke, so the mood was lighter than it might have normally been. I was sitting at my desk and she was sitting on my bed. I don’t remember where I heard this riddle, but I know that I have heard it multiple times before I told it. A natural setting to tell this riddle would be with family or friends, people who I am close with. I probably wouldn’t tell it to most younger kids because they probably would not understand or be interested in the riddle.

Text:

Me: What gets more wet as it dries?

My mom: [long pause] I don’t know, what does get more wet as it dries?

Me: A towel.

My mom: [laughs]

Texture: When I told the riddle, I could tell that my mom had not hear it before. She thought for a minute before asking for the answer. She laughed and seemed impressed with the answer to the riddle.

Mayah Reaveley
Utah State University
Introduction to Folklore
Lynn McNeil
Fall 2017