ROBERT McCAY, MANAGER

OFFICE HOURS, 9.00 A. M. TO 4.00 P. M.

August 20, 1903.

Chicago,

Pres. William J. Kerr,

Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir:-

As you are aware, the most troublesome Vacancies to fill are those occurring almost at the beginning of a new year. We wish to remind you that we have excellent facilities for assisting you in securing suitable candidates for any Vacancies of that character.

Our Membership has been greatly increased, and its quality has also been improved. Because of the lateness of the season, officials are sometimes enabled to secure men with splendid qualifications and successful experience on most favorable terms.

The fact that every candidate nominated for any position is selected by the manager himself assures our patrons that conscientious effort will be made to nominate for their Vacancies first-class material only.

Thanking you for an opportunity to serve you now or at any later time, I am,

Yours truly,

Robert McCay

Mgr.

P.S.

Kindly put us on your file for a new Catalogue, as soon as it comes from the Press.
