Pres. W. J. Kerr,

Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir:-

We are making unusual efforts to increase our efficiency as a teachers' agency. Our membership is gaining rapidly; we are prepared to furnish teachers for all the established branches of instruction; our list of teachers for special subjects will be very much larger than heretofore; we aim to keep in touch with the very best, available teachers in America. Unless the position is one exceedingly difficult to fill, we can put you in communication with some of the strongest candidates in the field.

Every candidate nominated for any position is selected only after careful consideration of his fitness for that position. Our patrons may rest assured that conscientious effort will always be made to nominate first-class material only. The many letters of commendation received from those we have served, indicate that our assistance has been appreciated.

Should you prefer that we furnish you some information respecting candidates before they apply, kindly say so and it shall be done. An opportunity to serve you will be very greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Mgr.
