Kellogg's College Agency,

Recommends graduates with University training for College positions.

31 Union Square,
Broadway, Corner 16th Street.

Herbert S. Kellogg, Manager.

New York Mar. 28, 1905.

My dear Mr. Kerr:

For sixteen years I have been recommending professors for positions in colleges and schools, and have filled positions in colleges as high as $2,800. I know of good men doing a variety of college work, and have been particularly successful in science lines. The enclosed description of a few men with doctor's degree and experience in college teaching will interest you. This department is organized for the purpose of being of assistance to you from an employer's standpoint. I refer with pleasure to Pres. Seelye, Pres. Thwing, Pres. Reed, Pres. Atherton, and many, many others, including deans or secretaries of Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Columbia, Johns Hopkins, Wellesley, Bryn Mawr, etc.

What changes or additions do you expect to make?
Let me send you private information concerning some suitable professor.
No charge to you for this service. Your letter will be confidential.

Sincerely yours,

H. S. Kellogg
