The Intermountain West Journal of Religious Studies is designed to promote the academic study of religion at the graduate and undergraduate levels. The journal is a student initiative affiliated with the Religious Studies Program and the College of Humanities and Social Sciences at Utah State University. Our academic review board includes professional scholars specializing in Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, and Mormonism, as well as specialists in the fields of History, Philosophy, Psychology, Anthropology, Sociology, and Religion. The journal is housed in the Intermountain West, but gladly accepts submissions from students throughout the United States and around the world.

Submissions

The Intermountain West Journal of Religious Studies accepts manuscript submissions year-round.

All manuscripts should be submitted as an attachment to:
imwjjournal@aggiemail.usu.edu

Manuscripts should be double-spaced, using a 12– point serif font and 1-inch margins, including footnotes, and must include an abstract of no more than 150 words. Manuscripts should be between 10 and 25 pages, although shorter articles will be considered.

The Intermountain West Journal of Religious Studies follows the Chicago Manual of Style: 16th Edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2010). Authors are encouraged to consult that volume for answers to questions not addressed in this document.

All manuscripts accepted for publication are subject to editorial modification.
