Litchfield, Illinois,
7/8, 1907.

President, Agricultural College,
Logan Utah,

Dear Sir: _____

I would respectfully apply to you for the position of teacher of Domestic Economy, in Agricultural College.

The teaching of either cooking or sewing or both is what I desire.

If this work is not yet introduced into the College, is it not likely, that you will have a department of this kind soon?

I would be so greatly obliged to you if you would kindly answer and aid me
in this matter.

Yours,

Most-respectfully
Mattie Keating.

August 16, 1904.

Miss Mattie Keating, Litchfield, Ill.

Dear Madam:-

Replying to your favor of the 8th inst. I have pleasure in sending you under separate cover, a copy of the College catalogue for the year 1904-5 in which you will find information regarding the extent of our work in Domestic Science and Arts.

The members of the faculty have been employed, however, for next year, so that at present there is no opening for an additional instructor at this time.

Yours truly,

President.
