Two Elijah Watt Sells Award winners - April 2013

We are pleased to announce that two recent graduates from Utah State's School of Accountancy are 2012 Elijah Watt Sells Award winners. Jill Aoki and Anthony Lemon each earned nation leading CPA exam scores and received this prestigious recognition. We congratulate them for this impressive accomplishment! Jill and Anthony are both extraordinary individuals. Their dedication and hard work is what earned them their awards. 92,000+ candidates sat for the Uniform CPA Exam in 2012, and only 39 received the award. This is a great reminder of what is possible when engaged students and faculty meaningfully intersect in a carefully focused educational environment.
