Dec. 20, 1905.

Pres. William Jasper Kerr,
Agricultural College of Utah,
Logan, Utah.

Dear sir:-

Should a vacancy occur at any time in your domestic science department, I would be pleased to put you in communication with one or more of our alumni. I feel that they are capable of filling such positions creditably, being graduates of the Home Economics Course in the College of Agriculture of the University of Minnesota. We have one young woman graduate who has had special training in domestic science work by assisting me in preparing for class work during the past year.

Yours very truly,

J. L. Shepperd,
