Librarians and Instructional Designers as Partners: Advancing Institutional Missions

Teagan Eastman, Online Learning Librarian
Erin Davis, Regional Campus & E-Learning Librarian
Utah State University
Dream Team: Library and CIDI (Instructional Designers)

Results:
1. Collaboration and support
2. Librarians seen as integral in course design & professional development process
3. Improved service provided to students and instructors
OMG NO MORE MEETINGS...

One meeting a week couldn’t possibly make a difference….right?
WHO YOU GONNA CALL? CIDI

Identify key players on campus

What’s our goal?
Who has a similar mission or vision?
Who has the resources to help achieve that goal?

CIDI

CIDI = Instructional designers
Support faculty across curriculum
Manage LMS
Professional development

Form Partnership

How can this partnership help both of us?
Buy-in from key players
Goal = support students and faculty
OPERATION COLLABORATION

1. Embed Yourself
   Join CIDI meetings to learn the ropes

2. Build Relationships
   Set the foundation and be patient -- remember the end goal

3. Shared Awareness
   What do they do? Communicate what we do. How can we utilize both skills to help students?

4. Develop New Perspectives
   Think outside the bubble and avoid jargon
Think Pair Share

1. Think of a goal (either short-term or long-term)
2. Who on your campus has a similar mission or vision?
3. Who has the resources (skills, technology, (wo)manpower) to help you achieve that goal?
4. How can the partnership benefit both parties?
