Dear Prof. Cummings;-

Permit me to congratulate you upon your election to the Superintendency of the Church Schools.

There seems to be a great need for more thorough and systematic supervision of church school work, and I feel confident that you will secure the desired improvement.

I know of no reason why the most friendly relations should not exist between the State and Church institutions of learning, each doing everything possible in its particular sphere to promote the advancement of the educational interests of the people.

With best wishes for your success in your new position, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Prof. Horace Cummings,
University of Utah,
Salt Lake City, Utah.
