HEIDELBERG.

98

Better than riches of wordly wealth

Is a heart that's always jolly.

Beaming with happiness, hope and health.

and warmed with love drinking

But sweeter than kisses we win by stealth

Are the hours we give to folly.

So let us clink but first let us drink

A toast through our jolly line.

Here's to the land that gave me birth.

Here's to the flag she flies;

Here's to her sons, the best on earth.

Here's to her smiling skies;

Here's to a heart that beats for me.

True as the stars above;

Here's to the day when mine she'll be.

Here's to the girl I love.

Oh! A. C. U.; dear A. C. U.;

Thy sons will ne'er forget,

The golden haze of student days

Is round about us yet.

The days of yore will come no more

But through our manly years,

The thought of you, so good so true

Will fill our eyes with tears.
