ACCESSIBLE EASTER EGG HUNT ON SATURDAY

March 30, 2010 by cpehrson

The Family to Family Network is sponsoring its first annual accessible Easter Egg Hunt this Saturday, April 3, at 12:30 p.m. It is open to children of all abilities with accommodations made for all disabilities. It will be held at Angel’s Landing Park, just west of Willow Park, in Logan, Utah.

The Family to Family Network is a grassroots volunteer organization composed of family members who have a child or other relative with a disability. The Utah Parent Center contracts with the Division of Services for People with Disabilities (DSPD) to support the Family to Family Networks all across the state of Utah.

The mission of the Family to Family Network is to educate, strengthen, and support families of persons with disabilities. They regularly host local meetings and activities for people with disabilities and their families, as well as provide information, advocacy and support in helping families understand how to work with the DSPD.
