NEWARK, O., May 5th 1902

Dear Sir:

Your letter of inquiry in regard to Mr Ottoman came Friday and I have just found opportunity to answer.

I regret that Mr Ottoman is thinking of severing his connection with us, as I regard him highly both as a teacher and as a man. I shall be glad however if he secures so fine a position as the one with you, as ^{it} is a decided advance in his prospects.

He is a man of strong, Christian Character, which is a fundamental consideration, and is active in good works. As a teacher he is conscientious and thorough, courteous in his attitude toward pupils and of good judgment. He is an excellent organizer, ^{and} not afraid of work.

Thank I take pleasure in commending him to you as a capable man who will ^{well} do the work you demand of him in this position.

Very Sincerely yours
Edward P. Childs
