6-21-2010

CPD Consumer Advisory Council Looking for Young Adult Members

Center for Persons With Disabilities

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.usu.edu/cpd_blog

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.usu.edu/cpd_blog/194

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Center for Persons with Disabilities at DigitalCommons@USU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Blog Posts by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@USU. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@usu.edu.
CPD CONSUMER ADVISORY COUNCIL LOOKING FOR YOUNG ADULT MEMBERS

June 21, 2010 by cpehrson

If you are a young adult with disabilities who would like to make a difference for others with disabilities, the perfect opportunity just came up for you.

The CPD Consumer Advisory Council (CAC) needs a young adult self-advocate to join them and represent the needs and concerns that you and your peers deal with every day.

This is an opportunity to share your perspective on the issues that impact you and to provide feedback to the CPD about important focus areas that need to be addressed.

Dr. Bryce Fifield, CPD Director, states, "The input and perspective of people with disabilities is critical to our success. We cannot be effective without your help in setting priorities. Participating on the CPD's Consumer Advisory Committee helps us and it helps you. You will meet new people, work with fellow advocates, and help us make a difference in every Utah community."

If you are interested in finding out more about how you can become a member of CAC, or know someone who would be interested, please contact Gordon Richins, CPD Consumer Liaison.