COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, 4 24 '05.

President, Agricultural College,
Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir:

A letter from Mr. Gregg advises me that possibly you might be in need of a teacher of "Gregg" shorthand and "Touch" typewriting, therefore I take this liberty and opportunity of writing to you.

I have been a teacher of Gregg shorthand for five years. I also taught Graham shorthand for five years, having graduated from the Graham school of New York City. I am also a graduate from the Rochester Business University, as well as from the Zanerian school of Columbus.

Should you be in need of a teacher, I would like to hear from you, stating salary, cost of living, when you want your teacher to begin, together with any other information which you might deem advisable.

Should you desire to know about my teaching ability, address Mr. Gregg, Chicago; W. N. Clifford, city superintendent of schools, Council Bluffs, Ia.; O. J. McManus, county superintendent of schools, Council Bluffs; E. P. Miller, commercial school, Council Bluffs.

I am 32 years of age, and married; five feet, seven inches in height, and weigh 155 pounds. I have no bad habits whatever. I would prefer waiting until fall before taking up the work.

Should you not need a man and learn of a first-class opening, I would thank you for the information.

Trusting to be favored with the courtesy of an answer, I am,

Very respectfully yours,

R. E. Wiatt
