Dec. 5, 1905.

Hon. W. T. Harris,
U. S. Commissioner of Education,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Sir:— In your report for 1903, pages 1650 to 1672 inclusive, are given certain tables containing information in regard to Colleges of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, established in accordance with the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1862.

The work of the Agricultural College of Utah and the State University of Utah is now being investigated by a Commission provided for by the last State Legislature, and it is very important that I have the information given in the tables referred to for 1904.

If your report for 1904 is not yet printed, and it is possible in any way for us to secure copies of these tables, I shall very much appreciate it. Should there be any expense involved in procuring these copies, I shall be glad to remit the same upon receipt of a statement of the amount.

Thanking you in advance for any assistance you may render us, I am,

Very truly yours,

President.
