April 7, 1903.

Mr. Edward R. Warren,
60 State Street,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:-- I am in receipt of your favor of March 20th, stating that you had arranged for the headquarters of the Utah teachers, who will be in attendance at the meeting of the N. E. A. to be held in Boston next July, at the Hotel Oxford. As nearly as I can tell from the map which you sent me, the Hotel Oxford is conveniently located. I approve your selection and will arrange accordingly. I thank you for your kindness in our behalf, and I am sure that your selection will be found satisfactory.

As it will assist me in my arrangements, I shall very much appreciate it if you will kindly have sent to me a drawing showing the relative location and sizes of the different rooms, and indicating the location of the doors and windows. If there is any expense involved for this work, I shall be pleased to compensate you.

Thanking you in advance for this favor, I am,

Yours very truly,

President.
