Dear Sir:

In response to the request of your Secretary, Mr. Sturges, I am sending you copies of testimonials and a photograph. I have been unavoidably delayed in this for several days and hope that it has not worked any inconvenience to you.

I would be pleased to hear from you as soon as is convenient in regard to the position for this fall and I desire to hear soon.

I am, Very truly yours,

A.Y. Reid
July 31, 1905.

Mr. A. G. Reid,
Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Dear Sir:—

I am requested to inform you that arrangements have been made whereby an instructor in physical education will not be employed for the next school year, the present instructor being reemployed. Your credentials and letters of recommendation will be kept on file, and when a vacancy occurs you will be notified.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.
