Gentlemen:--

We think you will be interested in the enclosed abstract describing a man who is now open for a change and who is, we believe, exceptionally good value at the salary named. We have carefully investigated his record and find it very satisfactory as to both character and ability.

Have you a place for such a man as this? If you can use him now or in the near future, we can arrange for direct correspondence or a personal interview as you prefer.

Possibly you have an opening for some other kind of high grade man, and if so we hope you will let us submit abstracts of men suited for the place. As we have through our various offices facilities for finding all kinds of high grade Salesmen, Executive, Clerical and Technical men, we should be able to meet your requirements whatever they may be.

Yours very truly,

HAPGOODS.

J. E. FERRIS, Manager.
Position Desired: Athletic Instructor

Salary Expected: $900-$1000

Education: 24

Nationality: American

Married or Single: Single

Record:

This applicant had five years experience in teaching and coaching athletics. Also several years experience in military training. He is a college graduate.

From 1904 to 1905 he spent teaching and acted as athletic director for a school in New York. From 1905 to 1906 he was athletic coach at Swarthmore, Pa., receiving $950 per year. He is 5' 11" tall and weighs 185 pounds. He has made a specialty of coaching foot and base ball teams and is at present principal of a California Military Academy.

His references speak of him as being capable instructor and trustworthy young man. He can be highly recommended for any institution in need of an athletic director as a man who has made a success of this work.
