PRESIDENT'S OFFICE,

82 WETHERSFIELD AVENUE,

Hartford, Conn., June 23, 1903

My dear Mr. Kerr:—

The American Institute Banquet to the Officers of the National Educational Association concerning which I have already communicated with you, will be given at Hotel Vendome on Commonwealth Avenue at five o'clock on Monday July 6. The speakers include Governor Bates of Massachusetts, Mayor Collins of Boston, President Eliot, and United States Commissioner Harris.

Will you kindly advise me by return mail to what address in Boston I may have the pleasure of transmitting your card?

May we not have the honor of greeting you at our headquarters at the Rogers Building of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on Boylston Street upon your arrival in Boston.

Sincerely yours,

President. Charles H. Keyes
