Prof. W. J. Kerr,
Pres., Agricultural College of Utah,
Logan, Utah.

February 12, 1906.

Dear Sir:

Answering your inquiry of 7th instant, I would state that I was personally acquainted with Captain Howard L. Perry for several years during the time he was stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, some ten or twelve years ago.

I knew him, at that time, to be a very bright and capable young officer of good habits and high character. While at Fort Russell, he married the daughter of Hon. E. S. N. Morgan, formerly Secretary of the Territory of Wyoming. Since the time Captain Perry was at Fort D. A. Russell, I have not been in position to know personally of his record, but I believe that it is good, and that he is capable of filling the position he seeks, acceptably, and would make a creditable instructor in your institution.

Very truly yours,
