Dear Sir,

Referring to your letter of July 7, inquiring with reference to Capt. Howard R. Perry, Esq. U.S. Army - In reply I take pleasure in saying that I have known Capt. Perry intimately since he joined my old regiment in Sept 1893. He is a gentleman of superior mental endowment, courteous, pleasing manners, of more than average administrative abilities. His characteristic personal habits are in every respect excellent.
I know no one among my acquaintances whom I can more unqualifiedly recommend for the position of Military Instructor.

I need hardly say more - but I wish you to accept my endorsement of Capt Perry and his wife as well, as unqualified.

Very truly yours,

C. P. O'Connell.

Brig. Gen. U.S. Army.
