Supt. A. C. Nelson,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

My dear Sir:-

Replying to your request of March 30th, I send you herewith a set of questions on world's history, U. S. history, and algebra.

It may be possible that I shall not reach Salt Lake until 12 o'clock Saturday. Having the questions, however, I trust that you can arrange for the examination without any inconvenience.

There has been trouble in getting cuts for your reports on account of the publishers failing to return them. I have been telephoning the publishers to-day, and they have promised to have the cuts here to-morrow morning, when I shall forward them to your office.

Yours truly,

President.
