UNIVERSITY OF UTAH
DEPT OF MODERN LANGUAGES
FRANK R. ARNOLD A.M.

Salt Lake City, Utah,
March 29, 1903. 18

President of Agricultural College, Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir,

I have that the head of your department of modern languages has resigned and should like to offer myself as a candidate for the position, unless you have already filled it satisfactorily. I have been doing all the work in French and German the past year, here in

FRANK R. ARNOLD A.M.

The University of Utah and as I was only engaged for a year to take the place of the regular instructor who has been absent a year in Europe and returns next September, I shall soon be free to make an engagement for next year. I was educated at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine and have both my A.B. and A.M. from that institution. I have also spent three years in Europe, studying at the Sorbonne, the University of Bordeaux, and at the University of Göttingen, so you see I have the necessary training to be able to teach French and German well.

Before coming to Salt Lake City I taught these languages at the Franklin School in Cincinnati, Ohio for four years. I am also engaged to give one or two courses ~~at it~~ in French at the University of Chicago during the next summer quarter. I should be very glad to correspond with you about the position and will gladly furnish you with any reference as to my character, scholarship, or teaching ability you may desire. Hoping to hear from you favorably,

Very sincerely yours,

Frank R. Arnold.
