Pres. W. F. Kerr,
Dear Sir,

I have that Prof. Wilson is to be absent for two years study and should like to apply for the position of substitute professor in his work during his absence. I have already written him and I think you know something about my ability and success as a teacher from our correspondence of last year. I enclose copies of testimonials and will repeat what I said to Prof. Wilson; that I have my master and bachelor degrees from Providence College, Brunswick, Me.; that I have studied two years in France and one in Germany; that I have taught for eight years French and German and have also taught English and Latin; and, besides my college teaching here I have taught French last summer in the University of Chicago. My plan is to spend this summer abroad, chiefly in Spain, if I have my
