Cambridge, Mass. 76
April 22, 1904.

I take pleasure in saying that Mr. Edward B. Schlatter is this year taking two courses in Old French under my instruction, Romance Philology 3 and French 12, and that he has done very good work in them both. Students taking these courses need a reading knowledge of German as well as of French, and such knowledge is assumed from the start.

[Signed] E. S. Sheldon,
Professor of Romance Philology
in Harvard University.
