UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.
DEPARTMENT OF LATIN AND GREEK.

BYRON CUMMINGS, A. M.
ROBERT LINDSAY MCGHIE, A. B.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 4, 1904.

President - H. J. Kerr, Agricultural College, Logan.

My dear President - Kerr,

I understand that Frank R. Arnold, a teacher in the University of Utah, is an applicant for a position in the language department of your institution. I wish to commend him to your consideration. He has been assisting me in Latin during the present school year and has been teaching both French and German here for two years past. He is an accomplished scholar and a very thorough, hard-working teacher. The students in his classes work and accomplish results.

I believe he is an excellent teacher, and I have found him a very agreeable person with whom to work.
I regret that he is leaving this institution, due entirely to little difficulties arising between Mr.
Arnold and Mr. Arnoldson, the man in charge of the department of modern languages. These difficulties seem largely personal, and I don't think should stand in Mr. Arnold's way in securing another position.
Hoping that you will deem it to your advantage to investigate his credentials and past record, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,
Byron Cummings.
