Logan, Utah.

Dear Sir:-

My friend, Mr. Olin Moore, informs me that he is an applicant for the chair of Latin, French, and German in your institution. Will you kindly permit me to say a word in his behalf.

I have known Mr. Moore for several years, becoming ~~ac~~ acquainted with him when I was connected with the faculty of our state university. From the very first he impressed me as being unusually bright. I have watched his growth with a great deal of pleasure. He is, to my mind, one of the best young men who have in them the making of a scholar. His character is above reproach. He has had some experience in teaching. I most heartily recommend him to your favorable consideration,

Yours very truly
E. M. Violette
