Nov. 26, 1906.

Supt. A. C. Nelson,

Salt Lake City, Utah.

My dear Sir:-

Upon my return from Baton Rouge, where I have been attending the Convention of the American Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, I find your request of Nov. 8th for a report of the work, etc. of the Agricultural College for the biennium ending June 30, 1906, for publication in your biennial report. I shall have pleasure in furnishing you the report desired.

I am very much crowded, however, and shall appreciate if if you will give me as much time as possible in which to complete the report you desire. Please notify me of the latest date it will be possible for you to use the report.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
