ART, PHOTO & ESSAY CONTEST CELEBRATES DIVERSITY

September 28, 2011 by cpehrson

There are over 400,000 people with disabilities who live in Utah. It is a better place to live because of the diversity that surrounds us.

Here is an opportunity to share your thoughts about diversity through art, photography, or an essay.

The Utah Disability Law Center is sponsoring a contest with the theme of: Diversity: All kinds of minds and bodies working together. The deadline for submitting entries is October 18, 2011. Entries can be submitted to Disability Law Center, 205 North 400 West, Salt Lake City, UT 84103. Entries can also be brought to the Center for Persons with Disabilities on the Utah State University campus—just leave them with Sharon Weston.

All ages are invited to participate.

Winners will receive cash prizes and their art will be featured at a November event honoring Dr. Temple Grandin’s visit to Utah in November.

The CPD is proud to be one of the sponsors of Dr. Grandin’s visit to the USU campus on November 1-2, with a luncheon, lecture and book signing.
