CPD Resolutions...looking Forward to 2012

Center for Persons With Disabilities

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.usu.edu/cpd_blog

Recommended Citation

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Center for Persons with Disabilities at DigitalCommons@USU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Blog Posts by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@USU. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@usu.edu.
CPD RESOLUTIONS...LOOKING FORWARD TO 2012

January 6, 2012 by cpehrson

When it comes to the future, there are three kinds of people: those who let it happen, those who make it happen, and those who wonder what happened. (John M. Richardson, Jr.)

CPD staff, What are your New Year resolutions?

Here is what will be happening this year at the CPD...the people who make it all happen!

-I want the CPD’s great web content to show up on the computer screens of even more people, especially by current and future special educators. (J. Lyon)

-I want to be more content in any situation that life hands me.

-I want to travel south of the border (I’ve never been south before!)

-We want to be healthier, so we are off desserts/candy for the next 2 months and plan to eat our full recommended servings of fruit/veggies each day. (J. Westover)

-I want to put in my yard.

-I want to hike to the top of King’s Peak; it is the highest in Utah at 13,528 feet. (D. Ramussen)

-I want to work more exercise into my winter life--preferably without hurting myself. And I’ll continue to drink fewer Diet Coke with Lime.

-My husband and I are going to Monterey, CA in July to see our son, Nicholas, graduate from Language School. He is in the Army/National Guard and has been learning Arabic. He has the 3rd highest GPA of all Arabic classes and is going to Morocco for a month as a reward. (J. Gines)

-I am saving money to go on a historical Mediterranean cruise with my Mom in November. We would see Michelangelo’s painted ceiling, Rome, and spend a night in Barcelona! (S. Powell)

-I want to become more patient and to really figure out who I want to be--I feel like I am a jack-of-all-trades and a master of none of them. So it would be nice to be able to be an expert in something. (V. Jump)

-My husband and I have downloaded our personal accounts into Quicken this week and we plan to keep better track of our money by checking the budget each week. I am saving for a big rock fireplace in the family room. (J. Westover)

A single resolution can positively and profoundly create lasting change in someone’s life. Here’s wishing all of the CPD staff good luck with accomplishing their resolutions this year.