Program Change Description - Abbreviated Template

Section I: The Request

Utah State University requests approval to change name from Specialization in Literature and Writing to Specialization in Creative Writing effective Fall 2019. This action was approved by the institutional Board of Trustees on .

Section II: Program Proposal

Program Change Description/Rationale

Present a brief program change description. Describe the institutional procedures used to arrive at a decision for the change. Briefly indicate why such a change should be initiated. State how the institution and the USHE benefit by the change.

The English Department at Utah State University is requesting a name change for the specialization offered under the MA/MS in English. Currently students must choose the Specialization in Literature and Writing. We would like for students to have two options: (1) the option of choosing a widely recognizable MA/MS in English or (2) the option of specializing in creative writing by choosing a Specialization in Creative Writing. We have several reasons for requesting this name change:

- Most of our peer institutions offer a traditional MA/MS in English. It is a recognizable degree. Offering a specialization in Literature and Writing is repetitive and adds no useful description to the degree.
- Currently 2/3 to ¾ of our graduate students focus on creative writing in our MA/MS in English program. They write creative theses. The Specialization in Creative Writing demonstrates a clear commitment to a specific aspect of English--the study and practice of literary arts—and more effectively names what students are choosing and studying.
- Creative writing is one of the areas within the field of English that continues to experience growth. Because students want to focus on creative writing, the degree will attract more diverse and stronger graduate students. The Specialization in Creative Writing will make that option apparent and clear.
- We have noticed a trend in offering emphases in creative writing at the graduate level as a way to prepare students to then apply to an MFA or creative PhD. It is a stepping stone of sorts, and we would publicize the specialization as a way to further apprentice before applying for these very selective degree programs.
- No school in the region offers this specialization.
- The program would require no changes or no additional faculty. The name change just more effectively names what we are already doing with most students.
- Students who would rather choose a more traditional MA/MS in English would still have that option and earn a general MA/MS in English.

Consistency with Institutional Mission/Institutional Impact

Explain how the action is consistent with the institution's Regent-approved mission, roles, and goals. Institutional mission and roles may be found at higheredutah.org/policies/policyr312/ . Indicate if the program will be delivered outside of designated service area; provide justification. Service areas are defined in higheredutah.org/policies/policyr315/ . Will faculty or staff structures be impacted by the proposed change?

As a land grant university, our mission is student-centered. We encourage students to discover and create. A specialization in creative writing would signal our commitment to the literary arts and to the way students can pursue their interests and passions through apprenticeship and mentoring.

Finances

What costs or savings are anticipated from this change? If new funds are required to implement the change, indicate expected sources of funds. Describe any budgetary impact on other programs or units within the institution.

There are no costs for this change. We would be attracting stronger and more diverse graduate students and that would ultimately benefit Utah State overall.
