FAMILY FACES OF DISABILITY PHOTO ALBUM WANTS YOU!

Help the National Council on Disability (NCD) bring its new report, "Rocking the Cradle: Ensuring the Rights of Parents with Disabilities and Their Children," to life by submitting a photograph of your family to NCD's new "Family Faces of Disability" photo album, to be shared on the NCD Facebook page.

With the "Family Faces of Disability" photo album, NCD is seeking photos that capture your family's day-to-day life as a way to personalize the issues faced by parents with disabilities in the United States. For accessibility reasons, all photographs submitted to NCD’s "Family Faces of Disability" photo album MUST include a written description of what is happening in the photo. NCD retains the right to remove any photo or its accompanying description without warning, if either is deemed inappropriate.

By submitting your photograph, you grant permission to the National Council on Disability to display these photographs on NCD’s website, Facebook and Twitter pages, or future print publications.

Please send your photos and descriptions to: FamilyPhotoAlbum@ncd.gov.
