HEIDI’S HAPPENINGS: FOOD, FOOD AND MORE FOOD!

December 19, 2012 by Sue Reeves

DSL participants with their food pantry donation.

Heidi Hill is a guest blogger for the CPD's Developmental Skills Laboratory (DSL), a day program for adults with disabilities. Heidi loves to type and each month she’ll be sharing the fun activities that she and her “buds” are doing at DSL.

Heidi and her buds collected tons of food for their food drive, 125 pounds in all! Then they took those donations directly to the Cache Valley Food Bank so that other people would have food to eat, and enjoy, at suppertime.

Then Heidi and all her van buds went by van to McDonald's for lunch. After everybody had thanked Daurie so much for taking them out to lunch, Daurie said she'd tried to pay for lunch, but a kind stranger stepped up and paid for everybody’s food and drinks.

CPD came and gave thanks for everything which they were thankful for. Also, we had a great feast that CPD gave to their DSL buds. We all munchen on turkey, potatoes, stuffing and every different pie you can imagine. Heidi and her buds were so grateful to be so spoiled by the CPD!
