Moderation in all things
This phrase is confusing, especially when it comes to food. We are told to eat salt, fat, and sugar in moderation, but what does that mean? Here are some ways to help you put moderation in your lifestyle.

Medium or small portions
On the light side
Dainty or little in size
Extremes are out
Reasonable
Avoid too much or too little
Take it easy
In control
Only eating until not hungry, not until too full
No scarfing down food. Take time to enjoy food.
Cool Ham & Cheese Kebobs

1. Alternately thread 2 each of tomatoes, broccoli, ham, & cheese onto each skewer.
