Request to Change the Name of the College of Business
To the Jon M. Huntsman School of Business
Utah State University

Section I: The Request

Utah State University seeks authorization to change the name of the Utah State University College of Business to the Jon M. Huntsman School of Business.

Section II: Need

On December 3rd, 2007, Jon M. Huntsman and his wife, Karen H. Huntsman, announced a gift to Utah State University of $25 million to be directed toward the College of Business. The University recommends, in recognition of this gift, that the name of the college be changed to the Jon M. Huntsman School of Business.

Section III: Institutional Impact

The impact of this generous gift will be felt not only by the College of Business but by the entire university. The Jon M. Huntsman School of Business will help USU students prepare to become tomorrow's leaders – locally, regionally, nationally and globally. The Huntsman name stands for excellence and integrity and having their name linked with Utah State University will provide opportunities for continued growth toward a world-class institution.

Section IV: Finances

$25 million in private funding will supplement existing state allocations and tuition. Funding will be directed toward advancing the quality and stature of the Utah State University Huntsman School of Business, providing truly world-class opportunities for Utah students.
