MORE CHANCES FOR ORATORS

Arrangements for the formation of "The Rocky Mountain Oratorical League" have been instigated by the University of Montana. The purpose of the organization is to bring the different schools of the Rocky Mountain region into closer contact with one another. They propose that this league shall be composed of the following institutions. Colorado University, Utah University, Utah Agricultural College, Wyoming University, Montana College of Agricultural and Mechanical Arts, and the University of Montana. An annual contest to be held at each school in turn.

In addition to this two medals are offered at this institution for oratory. Each year Prof. Geo. B. Hendricks presents a medal to the winner of the best extemporaneous speech. Another medal is given by the Utah Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. This medal is presented for the best oration on any phase of patriotism.

SQUARENESS.

Any student who has been in this college for any length of time has surely noticed the emphasis that has been laid by our faculty members on a "square deal" and "sportsmanlike play." Such sermons are especially emphasized before any athletic meet to take place on the A. C. campus. Such was the case on the day before the Montana Aggies and the A. C. football game. I remember distinctly the words of Coach Teetzel, from the pulpit, in his short talk to the student body. "Whether we win or lose we shall play a 'sportsmanlike' game. We must not forget that the Montana boys are our guests and we shall treat them as such." These were the sentiments expressed by the head of our athletic department before the struggle.

But look what a dreadful thing occurred when the real contest was on, the next day after Coach Teetzel's talk. Both teams were struggling for supremacy on Adams' Field. At this stage of the game it happened that our opponents had the best of the contest. The boys of the opposing team were calling for water. Their call was heard by every one present in the bleachers. But the water bucket was not seen to greet them. They repeated their appeal for water but no water was to be seen around. At last our A. C. boys called for the same beverage, from a distance away. At once the honorable "water boy" arose with the bucket in his hands, passed speedily the boys of the opposing team, who were eager for a drop of water, and ran to the A. C. boys.

This incident has been noticed by every spectator of the game. Many remarks have been passed which caused the writing of this article. Such acts were always condemned by every loyal student of the A. C. who stands for fairness and a square deal. That this act was not sportsmanlike there is no doubt and I am sure that the A. C. students and the faculty as a body do not approve of such snobby actions. D.A.F.

TAKE NOTICE.

We have been asked to call attention to the fact that Adams Field is a part of the College Campus, and that all regulations regarding the campus are applicable to the field as well. All are aware that smoking on the campus is forbidden. The same rule applies to the athletic field and will be strictly enforced.

BOYS. TAKE NOTICE.

For a number of years the classes, when giving class parties, have adopted the practice of using a drawing system whereby the names of the girls belonging to the class are drawn by the boys of the class for partners. This is a splendid way of getting acquainted and also of seeing that all the girls of the class get there, but sad to relate, we have some boys who are apparently disloyal to their class as they deliberately ignore the girls whose names they draw if the girls do not quite take their fancy. Young men who do this certainly are not a credit to their class and some measure should be taken to stop this condition. Class strength and support is not made up of boys alone and if your desire is to have a worthy representation you can not refuse the girls of the class the privilege of being present at your parties and invite special girl friends of other classes in their stead. If the young men in the classes do not want to live by the regulations set by their class they should not take part in their class activities. Undoubtedly a number of the young ladies who have been ignored are wondering if some of the boys of the institution know what the word courtesy means. For the benefit of those who have been guilty of such a trick, Webster's definition is, polite; well bred; civil; obliging; respectful. Fellows take a tumble to yourselves.

DOES SUCH AN INGRATE EXIST?

We have learned from a definite source that the signals used by our football team were given to Coach Bennion, or one of his team several hours before the game. We doubt very much that the ingrate could be a member of this student body. To this being let us say, "The wheels of the mills grind slowly but exceedingly fine." And remind him that when a soldier betrays his comrades he becomes known as a traitor and is hanged for his unfaithfulness.

Our vocabulary is so limited and our knowledge of superlatives so incomplete that we shall not attempt to describe this contemptible semblance of a man, but we do really believe that if the size of his hat band was regulated by the magnitude of his brain that he would wear a thimble for a hat.

Lest we are not able to exercise here consideration when we once have him in our grasp—we suggest that he, like the Arab of old, pack his belongings and silently move away. And when some one asks him why he left, say this to his questioner: "I was among men and could not measure up to their standards. The way of a traitor is extremely hard."

STUDENT BODY MEETING.

At the meeting of the Student Body officers Wednesday it was decided that the names of all faculty members who had not purchased Student Body cards be published in Student Life.

The purpose of this is to get the support of all faculty members in the activities of the school, and help the student body with its work in such things as the Lyceum course, etc.

The names of those faculty members who have not purchased Student Body cards will be published in the next issue of Student Life.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB ORGANIZED.

The Home Economics club is now organized and ready for work. The girls of the club are prepared to do catering, sewing, or other miscellaneous work. The club is composed of apt and willing workers who will do their utmost to give satisfaction. Any one wishing such work done see Miss Effie Webb or Miss Lillian Elder.

AGGIES IN SPOKANE TOMORROW

Tomorrow afternoon the Utah Aggies are playing Gonzaga College in Spokane, Wash. The Gonzaga eleven is reputed to be unusually strong this fall and Coach Teetzel will have a hard battle ahead of him. The defeat of last Saturday at the hands of the Montana Aggies brought forth weaknesses in the team which were corrected for tomorrow's game. A victory tomorrow on a hostile gridiron will bring much credit to our team and offset in many respects the 52 to 3 score of October 17.

Following the Gonzaga game, the team will remain in Spokane until the middle of next week. It will then leave for Missoula and meet there the University of Montana Friday afternoon. While in Spokane, Coach Teetzel and his husky warriors will remain at the Spokane Athletic club, training diligently for the Montana university game.

Montana is said to have a stronger lineup than the one Coach Bennion sent against us in the opening game a week ago here. If this is true, our boys will have to travel, but the general belief is they will be much stronger on this trip. By winning at Missoula Friday and taking the game tomorrow, the Utah Aggies will have redeemed themselves.

THE LATCH STRING.

To be a little more courteous than is necessary.

To pay a little stricter attention than most people do and consequently be a little more accurate than they are.

To be a little better informed than "the average."

To work a little harder and a little more willingly than "the bunch."

To be neat, modest and yet confident and aggressive.

To keep the mind on clean useful thoughts.

To spend a little less than is earned.

To be happy and yet never self-satisfied.

Summed up it all means being the rare person who not only gives most but gets most out of the "job" and out of life.

For such people the latch-string of opportunity hangs out at many doors.

—S. Roland Hall in Selling Sense.

WASHINGTON REPORTS.

NOW IS THE TIME TO FORM APPLE CLUBS

Now is the time to form apple clubs, and the U. S. department of agriculture in co-operation with the agricultural colleges of northern and western states is endeavoring to interest the boys and girls of apple-growing sections in the possibilities of apple culture as a profitable and pleasurable occupation.

The new clubs will be organized on the same lines as are those for the encouragement of potato, corn and alfalfa growing, gardening and canning, and poultry raising. Each club must have at least five members, and these will be under the instruction of a local leader who will receive instructions from the state leader in charge or the county agent.

The instructions will aim to show each of these young people how he may get the maximum results from ten trees with the minimum expenditure of labor.

As in the other clubs for boys and girls co-operating with the department practical prizes will be awarded by local fairs and interested people to those who excel, the best prize however will be experience and a net profit on investment to each member.

DIFFERENT VARIETIES OF WINTER WHEAT FOR DIFFERENT STATES

Useful information in regard to the varieties of winter wheat best fitted to various states in the eastern half of the union, is contained in a forthcoming bulletin of the United States department of Agriculture in Farmers' Bulletin No. 616 "Winter-wheat Varieties for the Eastern United States."

RANGERS NEED NOT FURNISH PHOTOGRAPHS

The United States Civil Service Commission has just announced that photographs need no longer be furnished with applications to take forest ranger examination.

The District Forester states that there are but a few vacancies to be filled and only experienced men are wanted. Those who have not had at least one season's experience as forest guard are advised not to attempt this examination.

IMPORTED DRAFT HORSES NO LONGER NECESSARY

We no longer go to England and Scotland for Shorthorn, Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus cattle except to a very limited extent. The breeders of these breeds in America have and are producing the equal if not the superior of the English cattle.

There is no apparent reason, why the same thing should not take place in the case of draft horses. The principal breeds of these are now thoroughly established in the United States. Their various characteristics and merits are discussed in a new bulletin published by the United States department of agriculture under the title of Farmer's Bulletin No. 619, "Breeds of Draft Horses." This bulletin deals with the Belgian, Percheron, French Draft, Clydesdale, Shire and Suffolk types.

WOOD ASHES

Wood ashes may be profitably applied as a top dressing to grass land and to pastures where they will encourage the growth of clover and better kinds of grasses which will then crowd out inferior kinds and weeds. Wood ashes may be also used for corn and roots. Because of their lime content they are not so good for potatoes although sometimes used for this crop.

UTAH'S RECEIPTS FROM NATIONAL FORESTS

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, the total receipts from the National Forests of Utah amounted to $150,404.62. Under the law 25 per cent of this amount goes to the state for the benefit of schools and roads, so that $37,601.15 will be turned over to the state treasurer for those purposes. In addition to this, ten per cent, or 15,040.46, is to be expended under the direction of the secretary of agriculture for roads and trails for the benefit of the public; so that in all the state benefits to the extent of $52,641.61. The figures are given out on the authority of the department of agriculture. The percentage available for the state is reckoned on the basis of gross receipts solely, the government paying by direct appropriation the entire cost of administration and protection.

The total receipts from all National Forests throughout the country amounted to nearly two and a half millions of dollars, the exact figures being $2,437,710.21, of which the states receive directly or indirectly $838,981.03, not including the sums turned over to Arizona and New Mexico for the sale of timber from school lands in those states.

CONCRETE FOR IRRIGATION

The lining of irrigation canals with concrete in order to prevent losses in the transmission of water is discussed at some length in a forthcoming bulletin of the United States department of agriculture (No. 126) entitled, "Concrete Lining as Applied to Irrigation Canals." The census of 1910 shows that there were more than 120,000 miles of unlined irrigation canals in the west. Forty per cent of the water that passes through this, the author estimates is lost, or, if allowance be made for that which is later recovered by lower conduits the loss is still more than 25 per cent. So much of this loss could be obviated by the use of concrete that in many places the value of the water will more than offset the increased cost of construction.

On the larger irrigation systems now in course of construction, water rights are being sold for from $25 to $50 an acre. In addition to the value of the water saved by concrete lining, the reduction in charges for operation and maintenance must also be taken into consideration; and also the insurance that such construction affords against damage to the crops by a sudden failure on the part of the water supply.

SMITH-LEVER ACT AN EDUCATIONAL MEASURE

Many letters are being received by the U. S. department of agriculture which indicate that farm women in various sections of the country have come to believe that the government is about to assist them with grants of money to individuals. This unfortunate mistake which appears to have arisen through a misunderstanding of the Smith-Lever Act recently passed by congress. Under this act funds contributed both by the federal and state governments are made available for practical demonstration work in agriculture and home economics. Experts from the Agricultural Colleges and county agents, both men and women are to show farmers and farm women the value of modern methods in agriculture and housekeeping, and demonstrate the use of labor-saving devices. The purposes of the act are thus entirely educational; and there are no provisions whatever for direct financial assistance.

An Oregon pioneer farmer, who has been a school teacher and handled 25 or 30 backwoods pupils, has entered the university at 60 years of age to study English and train himself for journalism. That's what we call pluck, and we predict that this farmer-school teacher will make a successful newspaperman. He has had the right kind of experience—and has a neat competence laid away.

"Crowns of autumn hats are high and pert looking," is the word from fashion headquarters. No mention is made of the wearers.

THE GREATEST OF ALL THEATRES

In a few short weeks the winter nights will be upon us, and our thoughts will turn again to the theatre and to other forms of amusement.

But there is one theatre which we should keep ever in our minds—which should have first place in our thoughts—first call upon our time and our energies—which is capable of affording us greater enjoyment than all others combined.

It is the theatre of God!
It is the church!

Varied forms of amusements are right and should be encouraged. They are necessary to a proper development of mind and body.

But the Theatre of God is essential to the proper formation of character—to the creation of zeal in the service of right—to the inculcation of ideals of honor and justice in the hearts of all peoples.

Other theatres come and thrive and pass away.

But the Theatre of God lives forever.

It can never die.

Others afford us amusement for the hour, relaxation for the moment.

But the acts of the Theatre of God never pale. They live as long as memory lasts and in the end they lift us to the realms of perpetual joy.

It is good that we enjoy life—that we seek recreation—that we find honorable means of driving dull care away.

But it is even better that we include in our program weekly visits to that theatre which is the essence of all goodness, of all greatness and of every bliss.

In mapping out our course for the winter months let us set aside each Sunday for a visit to the greatest of all theatres, the Theatre of God.

And much wisdom, and peace and contentment will be our earthly reward.

There is room for us all, and no ticket is required at the door.

BELGIAN'S WITTY EPIGRAM

English correspondents who are returning from the Belgian battlefields have many stories to tell about the cheerfulness and humor of the brave little Belgian soldiers who have thrown a stone into the cogs of the kaiser's war machine. One of the best stories refers to the inscriptions chalked by the soldiers on the trains which were taking them from Brussels to the front. There were, of course, the usual "to Berlin" and "to h— with the kaiser," but in addition there were many betraying a keen sense of humor. One inscription, which referred to the kaiser's "Forward with God," speech, read, "William has mobilized God, but he cannot make him march." Another on a cold storage wagon was "All the ice has been removed and this car is filled with hot stuff for Berlin."

Easy Money.

Miss Curley kept a private school and one morning was interviewing a new pupil.

"What does your father do to earn his living?" the teacher asked the little girl.

"Please ma'am," was the prompt reply, "he doesn't live with us. My mother supports me."

"Well, then," asked the teacher, "how does your mother earn her living?"

"Why," replied the little girl, in an artless manner, "she gets paid for staying away from father."—Ex.

Shiftless Religion.

Old Mammy and Mary Per-simmons called one day on the village lawyer.

"Well old lady," he said, "what can I do for you?"

"Ah wants to divo'ce mah husband," said Aunt Mary.

"Divorce your Uncle Billy," cried the lawyer. "Good gracious, why?"

"Bekase he's done got religious, dat's why," said Aunt Mary, "an' we ain't had a chicken on de table fo' six weeks."—Ohio Farmer.

Coached.

A young German who wished to be enlisted in the navy, but was unable to speak English, was being coached by an officer.

"Look here, Mike, when the inspector comes to you he will ask you how old you are. And you must say 27 years; 2-7-y-e-a-r-s. Then he will ask you how long you have been in the service. And you tell him three months; three m-o-n-t-h-s.

"His next question will be, Are you provided with food and clothing? And you must say both. B-o-t-h.

The following week the inspector came, and walking up to the German said:

"Good morning, friend. And how long have you been in the service?"

"Twenty-seven years," was the answer.

"Well, that's funny. I never saw you before. How old are you?"

"Three months," replied the German.

"Say, what do you think I am—a lunatic or a fool?"

"Both," boldly answered the German.—National Food Magazine.

DON'T BE A FAIR WEATHER PATRIOT.

THERE are always a certain number of students in every school who have no conception of what loyalty means. It is, however, a well established fact that their number in our student body has always been kept at a minimum. They are not always known, but at such times as we experienced last Saturday they are bound to come to the surface. Toward the close of the game many remarks were heard from some few students which did not reflect much credit on those who gave utterance to them. True, we were all disappointed and most of us were greatly surprised, but that is the more reason why we should show that we are still with our school heart and hand. In times of victory our assistance is not needed and we should not lose our backbones when reverse comes. Furthermore our team is not a weak team by any means. Our back field was crippled and the team did not show up as well as it can and will do, but there are other games coming and we have added experience. We can and will win. Be a true patriot! Boost for your school in reverse as well as victory.

UTAH.

Oh Utah, my loved habitation,
I would hold thee in fondest relation,

Thou art home, bearing all of the meaning

Which the word in its fullness implies;

And to thee my desires are leaning,
As I see thy fame slowly arise.

Thou art dear—most dear

To thy sons and thy daughters who dwell

'Mid thy mountains, on hill or in dell,
And thy name they hear

With a joy and pride genuine,
As out on the world thou dost shine

With a splendor and radiance divine.

I would sing of thy snow covered mountains,

Lofty sources of sparkling fountains,

And of streams of pure waters which dashing

From the heights of a precipice falling

On huge rugged boulders and splashing

With a roar that is almost appalling.

Stream both fresh and pure

Bringing life and true vigor to those

Who below in the valleys repose,
And are kept secure

From the storms by the mountains and hills

And refreshed by the crystalline rills

Each as happy and free as he wills.

"PSALM OF LIFE" REVISED.

Tell me not, in truthful accents,
Every girl may have a beau,
For there's many who can't find them
Though they seek them high and low.

Life is real, life is earnest,
Matrimony is the prize,
Yet there's many who can't gain it,
Though they're witty, gay and wise.

Wives of great men all remind us,
We could make our lives sublime,
If we only had a husband
Who could dress us up to time.

Husbands, who when walking with us

Through the crowded street,
Make us envied by all other
Women that we chance to meet.

In the world's broad field of battle
In the busy whirl of life,
No one wishes to be single,
All had rather be a wife.

Let us then be up and doing,
Waiting, watching for a man,
And the first who comes to woo us,
Charm and keep him, if we can.
—Maude Boyer.

So Far as You Know?
Did David ever take it back?
"All men are liars!" David groaned,
'Twas spoken hastily, he owned.
And yet, alas!—likewise, alas!

A NEW STATE OF MIND IS NEEDED

Will this be the last war? Will the horror of it and the suffering of it cause such a revulsion of feeling as to lead to world peace? The answer suggested by Prof. Ferdinand Schevill of the University of Chicago is worth considering:

"These battered and impoverished people will be preserved for no other purpose than for new wars and new disasters if they do not fit themselves out with a new mind. And that means that the individual—for everything depends in the last analysis on him—must learn the lesson of peace and love, for which in Europe, much more than in America, he is as yet not greatly receptive. If the European man does not acquire a new set of dominant ideas, the present war, irrespective of who wins or loses, can only add another mass of terrible rancors to those already existing."

That simply means that so long as nations believe they are justified in going to war to gain their ends, just as years ago the individual felt he was justified in using force to get what he wanted, every peace must be more or less unstable. America, happily removed from the field of European politics, has felt a moral revulsion from this war that has not been shown on the continent of Europe. What is most needed, as Prof. Schevill says, is a new state of mind.

Why He Quit.

A janitor of a school threw up his job the other day. When asked the trouble, he said: "I'm honest, and I won't stand being slurred. If I find a pencil or a handkerchief about the school when I'm sweeping I hang or put it up. Every little while the teacher or some one that is too cowardly to face me, will give me a slur. A little while ago I saw written on the board 'Find the least common multiple.' Well I looked from cellar to garret for that thing and I wouldn't know the thing if I would meet it on the street. Last night, in big writin' on the blackboard, it said, 'Find the greatest common divisor.' 'Well,' I says to myself, 'both of them things are lost now; and I'll be accused of taken 'em' so I quit!"

Don't judge a woman by the clothes she doesn't wear.

Socials

The party last Friday evening given by the Thetas was a success in every sense of the word. There was a good representation from each frat and sorority. About a hundred and twenty were in attendance. The gym was decorated with plants and furniture.

One feature of the evening was the drawing for partners. Strings were interwoven on the bars of the race track. A jug was fastened to one end and a doll to the other. The girl started with the doll and ended with a man. Much fun was created while this was going on. Punch was served from a table in one of the corners.

DUTCH BAND.

In answer to an article in Student Life of last week I wish to give my opinion in this matter.

The old students of the institution all realize the fact that the "Dutch Bands" of the past have always been able to arouse a great deal of enthusiasm for football games as well as other affairs pertaining to the Student Body.

As this organization has played such an important part in student activities in the past why not make it a permanent institution of the Student Body?

The music department of the school does not object to a Dutch Band in itself, but contends that members of the regular school band cannot play so well after taking part in the Dutch Band.

The only solution possible in my estimation is the organization of a band, from members of the student body, who own their own instruments and who would not in any way interfere with the work of the regular college band.

Think this matter over carefully and get behind this thing with true Aggie spirit and boost the Dutch Band along.

A STUDENT.

ALUMNI.

Student Life is very anxious to hear from the various members of the Alumni Association. Try to send us something at least every month. If you are too modest to write of your own achievements, kindly send us an account of what some other member is doing. Do you get Student Life each week? If you don't kindly let us know at once. We need your aid in making Student Life especially interesting to all members of the Alumni Association.

MEDLEY.

(Tune: Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight.)

A. C. U., the best school in the land Loyal, true, will every Aggie stand, White and Blue we'll support you heart, and hand The victory will be ours tonight, is (Tune: John Brown's Body.) We'll use Montana to wipe up the ground Colorado's eleven will be piled up in a mound, And rags of Crimson jerseys will be lying all around When the football season's done, CHORUS

Glory, Glory, Halleluia The Aggie team is goin' to fool yuh. Football is a science in this school —yah!

As we go marching on.

(Tune: Where Oh Where is My Little Dog Gone?) Oh where, oh where has that Aggie man gone Oh where, oh where can he be? He's gone up the field to make a touch-down And run up the score, don't you see?

(Tune: Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight.) Run, Run, Run, ye Aggies brave and true They go some, these husky Aggies do Buck that line and go a-sailing through, Three cheers for the Blue and the White.

FOR BASKETBALL.

(Tune: Auld Lang Syne.) Away up north in Logan town Was a school called B. Y. C. They specialized in basketball And thought they were IT by-gee, But when they met the A. C. U. Each quickly changed his mind, They could not compete with White and Blue And were left away behind.

LOOK AHEAD!
DON'T TRY TO SAVE $10.00 TODAY if it means a loss of 25 cents a day for all the years a cream separator may last you.

THAT'S JUST WHAT YOU WILL do if you buy a cheap or inferior cream separator simply because its first price is a little less than that of the De Laval.

WHEN A PRUDENT MAN BUYS a cream separator he knows that what he is really paying for is not just so much iron, steel, brass and tin, whether it is called a separator or not.

WHAT HE WANTS IS A MACHINE to perform a certain service, and he must be sure of the machine doing the work for which it is intended as thoroughly and with as little effort as possible on his part.

THOUSANDS OF BABCOCK AND other tests have proved that the De Laval skims closer than any other cream separator under any conditions, and particularly under the harder conditions always experienced at times.

JUST THINK WHAT A LOSS OF as little as 10 cents worth of cream at each skimming means to you in a year—twice a day for 365 days—over $70.00, and with as many as ten cows the cream loses alone from an inferior separator usually amount to more than this.

CREAMERYMEN, WHO ARE DEPENDENT on their separators for business success, have long since found out the difference between De Laval and other separators, with the result that De Laval factory separators are almost universally used the world over today.

DE LAVAL SEPARATORS ARE identical in all sizes, for one cow or a thousand, and the differences between separators are just the same with the smallest machine and the largest. They mean as much relatively to the little as the big user.

THEN THERE IS THE SAVING in labor because of the easier running and greater capacity of the De Laval over other machines and the less care required in cleaning and adjustment, worth at least 10 cents a day.

AND THERE IS THE INDISPUTABLE fact that a De Laval machine lasts from ten to twenty years as against an average of from two to five years in the case of other separators, or five times the average life of competitive machines.

THESE ARE THE REASONS why De Laval Separators are cheapest as well as best, why thousands of other machines are yearly being replaced with De Laval and why their use is rapidly becoming as universal on the farm as in the creamery.

IT SHOULD BE REMEMBERED, moreover, that if first cost is a serious consideration a De Laval Separator may be bought on such liberal terms that it will actually save and pay for itself, as many thousands of them have done.

These are all facts every De Laval local agent is glad of the opportunity to prove to any prospective buyer. If you don't know the nearest De Laval agency simply write the nearest main office, as below.

Class Notes

The Sophomore class gathered Monday evening in the Woman's gymnasium for what proved to be the most delightful social function of the year. The 'hop' was the first of a series planned by the second year collegians for this winter, to be had in connection with other parties.

The Monday night affair was a "get acquainted" scheme which purpose was achieved. For the first few moments of the dance there was a feeling of estrangement, but President McAlister bade the girls be seated along the south wall of the hall while the Merry Gallants stepped in line and introduced themselves.

After this novel and informal introduction the orchestra struck up a lively air and joy ran on unmolested for the remainder of the evening. The sophomores tripped the light fantastic until near the midnight hour and departed, thoroughly acquainted and bent on more gatherings of a similar nature for, they argue, a class cannot become too well known.

The ever watchful chaperons caught the spirit of the dance and joined in heartily with the fun. Was there ever a night like that?

FRESHIES TAKE WRONG STAND.

It appears as if the Freshmen have misinterpreted the ultimatum given them by the Sophomores. The Sophs have not done this because they are upper classmen and wish to assert their authority. Such a view is too small and narrow. The big thing known as "College Life" has made it customary for the Sophs to make this demand. Their attitude is to create a little life around school and promote class distinction. The old custom for the Freshmen to wear a green and yellow insignia will be hard to improve. Because the caps worn last year by the Freshies proved to be unsuitable for bad weather the Sophs have given the Freshies the right to wear a green hat with a yellow band. The Freshies have decided to wear a hat in their class colors. If they adorn themselves with such a hat they can hardly expect to make the Freshies next year wear something demanded by them. The present Freshman class consists of fifty per cent high school students who will be Freshmen next year. These plus the new high school graduates will make the next year Freshman class larger than the present one. It will be natural for them to follow in the steps of their predecessors and wear whatever they please. Where will the green and yellow headpiece be if the present Freshman class do not wear it? It is true that the hat proposed by the Sophs is not pleasant to wear. The Freshmen will appreciate his Sophomore standing when he returns to school the next year.

Freshmen, you must not think it is the Sophomore class you are bucking; it is the whole student body. Do you think they will think more of you if you refuse to wear the hat proposed to you by the Sophs and wear something more to your liking? Be game sports and help to promote class loyalty. Class loyalty means student body loyalty. With a loyal student body we can win out in all contests.

AN UPPER CLASSMAN.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ITEMS.

The Commercial Club met in the club rooms Friday for the purpose of discussing extension work with Mr. Hansen of the extension division.

A very instructive talk was given along the lines of extension work as well as club management. It was pointed out by Mr. Hansen that advertising of any club is necessary and along with this the club must stand out as a model which the High School clubs would be anxious to follow.

A set of articles and particulars were given Mr. Hansen and the work of the Commercial High School clubs will be taken up immediately by him.

The Commercial club began the year right by exhibiting their usual loyal and united spirit in the Student Body exercises last Friday. It began with a crowding together of its enthusiastic members in the Club rooms to get together on the cheering which resulted in a lively showing.

The enrollment of the club is fast increasing and everything points toward a "bumper" year. "Come and join us, boys, you are welcome."

All club members kindly take notice: The secretary states that he is now in a position to take care of the fees which are now due from the members. Loosen up!

MAKEUP MAN

IN BAD MIXUP

In handling the slugs which make up the lines in a newspaper, and in separating the various items, the makeup man sometimes gets the lines mixed up and they naturally read rather queer. As an illustration of what can happen, we cite the mixup of the Bangor (Pa.) News a few days ago when the printer got the wedding and an action sale mixed up with the following results:

"William Smith, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public action at my farm one mile east in the presence of 70 guests including two mules and twelve head of cattle.

"Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot for the parties averaging 1,200 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with, one sulky rake, one feed grinder and two sets of work harness, nearly new and just before the ceremony was pronounced the Mendl and Sons wedding march was rendered by one milch cow, five-year-old, one Jersey cow and one sheep, who carried a bunch of bride's roses in her hand was very beautiful. She wore one light spring wagon, two crates of apples, three racks of hay, one grind stone of mouseline de soie and trimmings with about one hundred bushels of potatoes. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip. Terms, spot cash."

"Made in America" sounds good, and is good. Push it along!

Sometimes a man's conscience may not bother him because it has wasted away from lack of exercise.

The Student Body dance given last Saturday night in honor of our football team, and the visiting team, was a great success. Every one present had a good time.

Dr. Robert Stewart returned during the week from Wichita, Kansas. He was the only representative from this school at the Dry Farming congress over which Dr. Widsøe presided two years ago.

Many of our old Alumni members were around school Saturday, having come in for the football game. Among them were John Luscher, West Lindsay, A. E. Aldous and other prominent alumni.

The initiation of Oscar Lundstrom, Charles Osmond, Eastman Hatch and Iver Sharp, into the Sigma Alpha, the oldest Greek letter fraternity at the A. C. reached a successful culmination Saturday evening, October 17. After the throats of the initiation engines were closed, all repaired to the dining room, where a unique banquet was served in honor of the new fraternity men.

BIG MAIN STREET ROBBERY.

On Monday evening Mr. Glen Vorhees was politely relieved of his charge of two young ladies. The holdup occurred near third north and Main street. On being questioned Mr. Vorhees states that he was walking quietly along with his friends when without warning he was seized from behind by two villains and overpowered. In the meantime two other robbers made away with the girls. Glen said he wasn't afraid, for he knew the girls were in good company and he cared little for his own safety.

The defeat of last Saturday was not one to cause dismay in the college. The football men were against a team of experienced veterans. The scoring machine of the visitors consisted of Jack Travers, Ott Romney and Gattan. These players, with the possible exception of Gattan, are at Bozeman for the first time this year. Our team learned much about the game of football. One thing learned was to break up plays before they get started. Had the plays of the Montana A. C. eleven been nipped in the bud, the phenomenally fast backfield would never have been able to run up so healthy a score.

Tackling on the part of most of the Blue and White players was decidedly off color Saturday. Captain Godbe, Hugh Petersen, Walker and Williams tackled low, but the others refrained from it. The line did not charge with the spirit and vigor shown in practice the week before the game.

The University of Utah suffered a defeat of 46 to 7 last Saturday afternoon. In fact, it was a bad day for Utah all the way around, was October 17. Both the Utah institutions suffered defeats that were the worst in the history of either's football annals. The Utah Aggies, however, have much the better cause for feeling optimistic. We were against a team of exceptional strength and one that would never be allowed in the Rocky Mountain conference, because of ineligible men. The University of Utah lost to the Tigers of Colorado Springs where eligibility requirements are most exacting.

Coach Teetzel's eleven was also in a crippled condition. With Dave Jones in the lineup and Harry Green with two well hands, the offensive and defensive works of the team would have been practically double that shown against the Bozeman bunch.

Not until November 7th will the football team be seen in action here again. Wyoming University is scheduled for that date. Wyoming has already been trimmed by the University of Utah team in the early season. Comparative scores will be used to prognosticate the outcome of the Thanksgiving game in Salt Lake.

Colorado Aggies, to be met here November 14, were defeated last Saturday by the University of Colorado (Boulder) by a score of 33 to 6. Boulder is being heralded as the conference champions again this season.

The University of Utah is playing the Colorado School of Mines in Denver tomorrow afternoon.

The following Utah Aggies are on the northern trip: Coach C. T. Teetzel, Manager Frank Woolley, Captain Lollie Godbe, Joe Snow, Amos Griffin, Cliff Naylor, Hugh Williams, Owen, Hugh Peterson, Dave Jones, Harry Green, Pearl Jones, Walker, Anderson, Bearnsen and Caine.

Clifford Naylor will be put back into tackle from halfback and Captain Godbe will be shifted to the backfield. Harry Green may also be put at tackle. These changes will greatly strengthen the defense of the team and facilitate stronger offensive tactics.

CHALLENGES.

Why not have the faculty show some life and give us a few of their old college yells and songs by way of inspiration. The Student Body will gladly turn over one of its chapel periods for the demonstration. Of course there would be some rivalry between schools, and which one would win out we cannot say, but how would this look:

Drs. Ball and Fredricks, of Iowa, vs. Drs. West and Stewart of Chicago.

N. A. Pederson of Harvard, vs. Prof. Brooks of Yale.

Dr. Hill to challenge the winner of the eastern division and Prof. Saxer the western champs. While Prexy and "Doc. Harris" can have a free for all with Dr. Greaves.

Everybody works but the seniors, And they sit around all day Making fun of the freshmen Of all they do or say. Seniors need not study They are far too bright; Everybody works at the A. C. But the seniors—light.

Here a little, there a little, Story, clubnote, song or jest, If you want a "stick" college paper Each of you must do his best. D. A. F.
