INDIAN POET- PHILOSOPHER IN UTAH

RABINDRANATH TAGORE TO LECTURE AT THE UNIVERSITY

On the 14th of this month Rabindranath Tagore, the now well known poet-philosopher of India, will speak to the students of the University of Utah. Those who have known Mr. Tagore through his writings which have been translated into English, the opportunity to hear this greatest of living philosophers will come as the fulfillment of a long-cherished desire. For to read this sage of the awakening East is to long to see and hear him; to learn what sort of man it is who from an unknown India can touch the hearts of the people of every nation. A voice out of the dreamy, mystic Orient, Tagore has shown us as few writers before have, that fundamentally man is the same wherever he is found. His works appeal with unusual power to Occident and Orient alike.

In his native land we are told that Mr. Tagore is almost worshipped, that when he speaks to his fellow-countrymen no auditorium in the land can contain the masses of people who flock to hear him. His name is known in every home in Bengal; the farmers, laborers and pilgrims sing his verses, as they till their fields, ply their boats, or plod along the dusty roads.

And incomparable are these songs in simple yet charming beauty. We are told that in the native dialect of Bengal these verses are wonderfully musical, and even in their translated form, they retain a perfection which is almost unrivaled in the realm of present day literature. "In simple and unaffected song, which is the very perfection of art and beauty" Tagore interprets for us the universal longing of the human heart for communication with God. A childlike simplicity and trust, accompanied by a penetrating insight into the motives and desires of his

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB IN ORIENT

"LITTLE JAPAN" DESCRIBED AT FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the Cosmopolitan club was a splendid success. Nine nations were represented. While the rain fell in torrents, a select party of "foreigners", comfortably and exclusively located at Murdoch's, listened with growing interest to a lecture on "Little" Japan.

H. Grant Ivins, who for five years lived in the flowery kingdom, learned the language, and studied from many angles the habits and customs of the people, gave his listeners a pleasant and instructive discussion of Japan.

The Japanese boast that an invader has never set foot in Japan, and that the little nation has never been defeated in war. The Japanese are very proud of their nation and loyal to their emperor, who, they claim, is a direct descendant of the gods with an unbroken line of ancestors reaching back to 500 B. C. The emperor gave the people a constitution without their asking. It differs from ours in that it sets forth what the people may and may not do, instead of defining what the emperor and other public servants are expected to do. They have a legislative assembly similar to the English House of Commons.

The population has increased through births alone fifty per cent in thirty years. They are badly in need of room to spread out. This alone is the incentive the Japanese may have for making war on another nation.

English is taught in the high schools and universities and many young men speak English.

They are ardent admirers of the American and appreciate the efforts made by America to advance them in modern civilization.

WATSON DEFINES COLLEGE SPIRIT

COACH ADDRESSES STUDENTS IN CHAPEL

Appearing before the Student Body in chapel exercises on Wednesday, Coach Watson delivered a very wholesome and entertaining lecture on "College Spirit."

Mr. Watson emphasized the fact that deep down in the inmost man there reigns a dominating spirit that makes for service. Those men and women who sense that spirit and come to prepare in order that they may increase their worth in the field of service are college men and women with "college spirit." It is that spirit that impelled thousands of football candidates to respond to the call of the coaches throughout the country. They present themselves and fight—not for personal glory,—not for a letter, but that they may render service to their school, and to their people with them. True "college spirit" predominates. These fellows too must give their very best efforts or none.

Differing from the true "college spirit" we have a "cheap college spirit" manifest by snobbish well dressed persons or "hangers on" who give nothing to their alma mater but are usually on hand to participate in some "red paint" episode that reflects no credit upon the institution.

The great driving force in bringing all students to college is that inherent desire to become bigger, better and more serviceable. You freshmen are here for that reason. To the new students Mr. Watson's advice was, "Grow; go right on working. Broaden your ideals, letting each succeeding commencement day pass with no cause for remorse."

The rendition of the "Prodigal Son" by the choir was much appreciated.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE A. C.
STUDENT BODY

On behalf of my boys and myself I wish to thank you for your deeds of love, words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement.

Very sincerely yours,

ALICE J. RITER.

OPEN HOUSE

The boys of the Delta Nu fraternity will hold "open house" this afternoon from three to six o'clock at their home on North Main. 277 North Main.

TAKE THE EAST BLEACHERS

Students are requested to occupy the east bleachers at tomorrow's game. The west bleachers are reserved and twenty five cents will be charged for admission to them. Manager Howells needs $3,000 to carry him through the football season.

MISS SMITH WEDS

POPULAR LIBRARIAN MARRIES
LOGAN BANKER

On October 10th Miss Elizabeth Church Smith, for several years head Librarian at the Agricultural College was married to Mr. Geo. H. Champ, a prominent banker of Logan. The wedding took place in Pasadena, California, at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Smith has been in charge of the College Library for several years and through her efficient and thoughtful work has come to be highly respected and greatly loved by all the students in the institution.

Though regretting the loss of their Librarian, the students wish Mrs. Champ all the success and happiness that her new life can contain.

SNOW HONORED BY FRESHIES

MAN FROM SOUTH ELECTED TO LEAD CLASS OF '20

A great deal of interest was manifested in the Freshman election, held Friday, October 6, although there were not as many voting as had been expected. The same number of votes were cast for president as for secretary and the first executive committeeman. Competition was especially keen for the position of treasurer, and for committeeman, Mr. Deal and Mr. Gardner running close to Mr. Luke. For the first office and Woodruff and Mr. Barker giving Mr. Robinson a hard race for the second position. The election resulted as follows.

For President, Wm. J. Snow.
For Vice-President, Mabel Williams.

For Secretary, La Von Mason.
For Treasurer, Arthur V. Duke.
For Executive Committee, Leland Heiner, Edgar R. Moody, Eugene W. Robinson.

The infants have made a good start by choosing capable class officers. The president, Mr. Snow, has had a great deal of experience before coming here, and should prove the right man in the right place. In 1908 he entered the B. Y. U., where he continued, for three years. Then he stayed out of school for a year and the next year left for the mission field where his next two years were spent. Upon his return he taught school during the season of 1914-15. In 1914 he was elected county assessor of Wayne county, which position he has since held. Last winter he attended the Richfield High School, where he was very active, being a member of the school debating team, basketball team, baseball team, and executive committee. Last summer he was elected a delegate to the Democratic State convention.

The vice-president, Miss Williams, has been very active in high school, where she was successively class reported, class president, class vice-president, class secretary and president of the debating society. For two years she represented the Ogden High school in debate, and last year represented it in both extemporaneous and oratorical contests. The secretary, Miss Mason, has also had a great deal of experience in high school, which, together with her pleasing personality and willingness to work, will make her a valuable assistant.

With such officers as these we certainly expect a great deal from you Freshmen. Now let's see you get in and do things!

A. C. WINS FIRST GAME

DEFEATS THE WEST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL IN SLOW GAME

The victory of 20 to 3 against the West Side High School team of Salt Lake shows that our team did not have a walk-away, but had to work hard all the time. Coach Watson was enabled to get a line on his men, as every man on the squad had a chance to show his ability at playing football. The game was slow at times, characterized by many fumbles and mistakes. There was much punting and forward passing. In punting Stiefel proved himself to be an expert. The first score came after seven minutes of play when the West Side scored a drop kick from the thirty yard line. The Aggies scored twice in the second quarter and once in the third.

The game opened with an exchange of kicks, the West Side gaining at each kick, and Harry was kept busy carrying them back. Stiefel then ordered forward passes for three consecutive times, but all failed. "Stubby" Peterson then replaced Halton at quarterback. The West Side scored 3 points by a drop kick, which ended the first quarter.

The Aggies scored early in the second quarter with Twitchell carrying the ball. Kapple kicked the goal, which made the score 7 to 3. The West Side failed in an attempt at a field goal. The Aggies worked the ball down to the two yard line and Twitchell went over again for another touchdown. Kapple kicked goal, and the score at the end of the first half stood 14 to 3.

Substitutions were made on the Aggie side in the second half. After five minutes of play Captain Judd took the ball over for another touchdown, but Kapple missed goal, and with an exchange of kicks the quarter ended.

The last quarter was marked by seemingly reckless playing on the part of the High School boys. They attempted to gain by a lot of kicking and forward passing, but to no avail. The game ended with the ball in the Aggies territory.

The longest run was 35 yards, made by Kapple. Johnson carried the ball only four times in the first three quarters, always making good gains. Captain Judd played a good game, both on the line and at full-back. He alternated positions with Twitchell. Stiefel was the bright star for the visitors. Captain Andrew's men showed excellent form for a High school team. The Aggie backfield is exceptionally strong this year, while the line lacks somewhat in strength, as shown by the way the West Side men broke through. The one thing which pleased the crowd of onlookers was the teamwork displayed in the game, and with Coach

AGGIES OF UTAH AND COLORADO CLASH TO MORROW

GREAT STRUGGLE EXPECTED WHEN FARMERS MEET ON
ADAMS FIELD

Tomorrow afternoon students of the College and townspeople of Logan will have their first opportunity to see the Aggie football team in action against one of the conference tribe. The Colorado Aggies, last year's champions of the Rocky Mountain conference, will meet our team on Adams field at 3 o'clock.

Being the initial game of the season, the contest will probably not represent the finished football that it will later in the season. In a measure it will be a game between veterans and green amateurs.

The Colorado team consists of the majority of its last year's players, nine of the '15 squad being reported present. On the other hand, the local team consists mostly of green men with not a great deal of former football experience, but nevertheless a team filled full of "pep" and "ginger." What the Utah team lacks in experience it promises to make up in scrap and hard consistent fighting. Coach Watson is instilling the spirit of "never say die" into his followers and it seems to be taking root with exceptional agility.

From the dope sheet, Colorado has a big shade in tomorrow's contest. This team has already piled up big scores against its opponents of this year and it is reported that they are now playing in mid-season form. But dope sheets need not control football. A scrappy team and a scrappy student body will go a long way toward winning any game. Students remember that much of the success in tomorrow's game depends on you. The team needs encouraging, it needs cheering, whole souled, sound, spirited cheering. Also remember that many an apparent defeat has been turned into victory by a vigorous cheer given at an opportune moment. Cheer the team with the same enthusiasm when they are losing as when winning and you'll

A great many changes in the Junior class this year made it necessary to hold a special election to complete the class organization. The most important office to be filled was that of Buzzer Elditor. Mr. John Russell was elected last year, but his failure to return made it necessary to select another man to take his place. The vacancy was well filled by the unanimous election of Mr. Heber Meeks, who was a prominent student here two years ago.

The next office of importance was that of chairman of the Junior Prom. committee. This was filled by the election of Mr. Moses F. Cowley.

Mr. Ebenezer Kirkham was chosen as class representative to the executive committee.

Since his election the Buzzer editor has been very busy selecting his staff and has succeeded in choosing most of them. Those already chosen are:

Associate Editor, Edith Hayball.

THAT SELF GOVERNMENT

It has been suggested that from our editorial on self-government, in the last issue of Student Life, it might be inferred that the faculty had already decided to withdraw from active participation in the government of the Student Body. Such, however, is not the case. No definite action has been taken in this matter. President Peterson has simply started a movement which he hopes will result in the granting of complete control of Student Body affairs to the members of that organization. It was our intention to express, in behalf of the students of the Agricultural College, our hearty approval of the desire of Dr. Peterson to see the students more fully in control of their own affairs. We cannot too strongly endorse this movement and hope that all faculty members concerned may see fit to approve of some plan whereby this desired end may be attained.

AG-LITEROSE

It is highly proper that in a college which boasts an enrollment equal to that of the Agricultural College of Utah there exist some literary organization, an organization for the encouragement of literary effort on the part of the students, which fosters the little talent which a practical school of this nature furnishes.

Such an organization does exist at the A. C. in the form of the Quill Club. It is necessary that this club, if it hopes to accomplish the purpose for which it was organized, have some means of publishing the best work of its members. At the same time, it is difficult for a club of a few members to finance the publication of a representative magazine. Two issues of Ag-Literose, the organ of the Quill Club, proved very successful last year, but the members of the Quill feel that their magazine needs the backing of the Student Body, that Ag-Literose should be made an official College publication and its success be assured by a contribution from the Student Body funds. We are heartily in sympathy with this feeling and hope that the students may see fit to lend some aid to this endeavor to develop what literary talent we have in the College.

NOTICE!

"No solicitor, sales agent, insurance agent, etc., is permitted, in accordance with the rules of the University, to do business on the campus with the students of the institution." At the State University the foregoing notice is posted in several conspicuous places on the campus, where agents and solicitors cannot but see it and know that they are not welcomed by the students of that school.

We could well follow the example of our sister institution and set up at the entrance to the College campus a plain and unmistakable notification to solicitors that their presence in the halls of the A. C., in their vocational capacity, is not desired and will not be tolerated.

In the past the presence of some such agents, taking advantage of the inability of students to escape their obnoxious and persistent advances, have been a source of almost unbearable annoyance to many men of the College.

Such intrusion of business men into the halls of our school should not be permitted and the students should take steps to see that the men who solicited business here last year be not allowed to make the lives of students miserable again the coming year.

AG. CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

After chapel Wednesday one hundred fifty boys met in response to the first call made for the Ag. Club. Geo. R. Hill spoke forcefully on the benefits to be derived from active participation in all College activities. President J. W. Thornton outlined the work of the club for this season. The elite social functions of the year will be begun with a rousing Ag. Club ball. Important lecturers will appear on a special lecture course which has been outlined. A fair for all the Ag. clubs of the State will be held next spring under the auspices of the U. A. C. Every high school Ag. Club in the State will be asked to participate in the fair.

The club, as such, will take part in school activities. Several special activities as a club. Several special Ag. Club songs are in course of composition and a special Ag. Club quartette will be organized.

All students registered in the School of Agriculture are eligible to join. Many have already paid their fees and others may do so by conferring with either J. W. Thornton, Leo B. Sharp, Morrill Powell or J. W. Wright.

NO MORE DANCING

By football men until the season closes was the crushing announcement made by the coach last Monday evening. Dainty steps and graceful ways should be foreign to the mind of every grid husky. He should get drive behind every move and should make a habit of stepping on all available toes.

The co-eds will no doubt receive this announcement with some disfavor, but we advise them to accept it calmly as true patriots should. Be thoughtful, however, and remember that a gentle word or a smile at a dance will be as balm to the wounds of the warriors lined up along the wall.

EXCHANGES

Fort Collins Aggies boast of a very large cosmopolitan club and it is conducted in a very novel manner. It has taken up the study of Esperanto, the universal tongue, and meetings are held weekly. By the end of the school year the members hope to be very adept as universal conversationalists.

We were sitting in the hammock One nice balmy night in June, And the earth was cased in slumber 'Neath the beauty of the moon. I had asked one little question And my heart was filled with hope, But the answer never reached me 'Cause her brother cut the rope. —Red and Black.

The Hood

IT WAS CONSTITUTIONAL

A reply is in order to Mr. Morrell's "Hood" article in last week's issue of Student Life.

Article III, Section IV, clause 5 of our Student Body constitution states: "Any vacancies occurring in the corps of officers shall be filled by appointment made by the Executive Committee."

On Sept. 28, the Executive committee appointed Moses F. Cowley to fill the vacancy in the vice presidency. Mr. Cowley's withdrawal as Executive Committeeman was understood by the committee, and this second vacancy was filled by the appointment of Miss Florence Chipman. In these actions the Executive committee acted within the spirit of our constitution and in accordance with the power delegated in the above clause.

In Article VI, Section II, which reads: "It shall require two-thirds vote of all members (of the Student Body) to remove any elective officer from office," provision is made for the removal of an unsatisfactory officer, and the means of removal is designated. The action of the Executive committee in filling vacancies was not a violation of this clause.

Whether or not the Executive Committee anticipated the desire of the Student Body in appointing Mr. Cowley vice president is a debatable question. Attention might be called, however, to the change of duties involved. The vice president and the Executive Committeeman have equal voice as members of the Executive Committee, but the vice president, in addition, assumes the duties of the president in the latter's absence.

The question of the Executive committee establishing a bad precedent in thus transferring an elective officer is also debatable. If too much authority has been delegated the Executive committee, a change in our constitution should be considered. RAY BECRAFT.

SOCIETY

Last Monday evening the Thetas gave a Pelican party at the sorority house. Hilarity reigned supreme, but a few facts worth knowing were gleaned even in the midst of such nonsense. From the signs pinned on the various backs, Zelda learned that it doesn't necessarily take a large hat to get by the board of censorship; Annie knows what "The Man Who Cares" wants; Lavon has her eye on men who think of the "Niceties and Refinements" of life.
Marg proudly knows that she is a "Wonderful Bargain" anywhere; others learned like valuable knowledge, and from "Jew" Ostler everyone learned the interesting fact that Art Calne wears a number "fane" shoe.

Muriel Horsley and Lavon Mason
"cut" for the prize for the best paper hat and then refreshments were served to fortify the spirits of the losers. Two masked football players surprised us by entering unannounced and giving an exhibition of the game between the A. C. and the U. of U. Any who are curious as to the outcome of the game may get information from Sorosis.

October 6th the Sorosis Sorority gave a progressive dinner. Forty guests were present. Five courses were served at five homes and automobiles were used to take the girls from place to place. The party ended at the home of Jesse Eccles, which was artistically decorated with autumn leaves for the occasion.

The Beta Delta Sorority entertained October 5th at their home with cards. Twenty tables were filled. The prizes for highest score went to Miss M. Horsley and Mr. R.
Becraft. Autumn leaves were used to embellish the rooms. Refreshments were served. The chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. Hill, Dr. and Mrs.
N. A. Pederson, Dr. and Mrs. C. W.
Porter, and Miss Edith Bowen.

The first Student Body dance of the year, given in the Gym., October 7th, was a splendid success. A large crowd turned out and "mixed" in true collegiate style. All present were togged with slips announcing the class to which they belonged.

HOLSTEIN
CATTLE
 One of the greatest investigations among dairy breeds was made by experts of the Wisconsin Experiment Station. Prof. F. W.
 Wolf states that the "Holstein" cows produced considerably more milk solids and fat than the cows of other breeds (19.5 per cent more butterfat than the Guernseys and 38 per cent more than the Jerseys), and they also give larger net returns for feed consumed.
 In all dairy breed competitions where Holsteins entered have been representative, they have produced a greater net profit for butter than any other breed entered. There's big money in the big "Black and White" Holsteins.

 soon notice a big difference in the scores.

Coach Watson has spent the last week with the squad plastering up the weak spots made apparent in the practice game of last Saturday. Both offensive and defensive work has been emphasized with the result that a wonderful improvement has been shown. In the daily scrimmages the Freshmen team has been pounded and blocked most unmercifully by the first eleven. Both line and backfield are picking up in speed and intrefrence work.

All of the individual men are showing up well. Kapple, with no former experience at quarter, is playing a fast defensive game, and using exceptional judgment in general using the team. Johnson and Stubby Peterson at halves are playing a wonderful offensive in open field running. Twitchell and Judd at full are consistent ground gainers with line plunges. On the line, Doug. Smith at end seems to be one of the finds of the season. The scrappy basketball guard is tackling all over the field and playing one of the strongest offensive games of the year. Lewis and Lindquist are putting up a game scrap for left end and at present it looks like a toss up. Both men are well known to Aggie students. Captain Judd, Morrell, Mohr and Sutton are the fighting candidates for tackle. Mohr was injured in scrimmage last week so it rests between Sutton and Morrell to fill the right tackle position in tomorrow's game.

The center positions on the line have been bolstered a lot since last week. Curtis and Pixton are the strong possibilities for the guard position with Gardner and Reese close competitors. Either of the four is likely to go in tomorrow. Cannon and Hendricks are putting up one of the big fights of the season for the center position. At present it looks like an equality between the two.

Coach Watson refuses to give the line-up for tomorrow's game, but a close observation of the past week's activity would seem to indicate that the following will start the game:
 Cannon, c.; Pixton, r.g.; Curtis, l.g.; Judd, l.t.; Mohr, r.t.; Lewis, l.e.; Smith, r.e.; Kapple, q.b.; Johnson, r.h.b.; Stubby Peterson, l.h.b.
 Crowley of the University of Denver will referee the game and Lieut.
 Santschi will umpire. Head linesman is to be chosen later.

Bennion.
 Organizations, Victor Hendricks
 and Rachel Dunford.
 Classes, Heber Morrell.
 The College Year, Ina Porter.
 Artist, P. C. Braithwaite.
 Photographer, Elroy Boberg.
 Humorous Department, P. A. C.
 Peterson.

Another associate editor is yet to be chosen, as well as an assistant business manager and an assistant photographer. Each head of department will choose his own assistant.

Every member of the staff has been an active worker in the school and all have shown merit of high order in their activities. They are very enthusiastic about the work and so will put their very best into
 it. The editor is well pleased with his co-workers and has great confidence in their ability. With such talent and such an enthusiastic spirit we may look this year for a bigger, better Buzzer than ever before.

DR. PETERSON OFFERS PRIZES

Dr. Peterson announces that he will give a prize of five dollars for the best College song of two verses and a chorus, and five dollars for the best music for this song. Songs should be submitted by November first.

 fellowmen characterizes the verses equally welcome wherever they may go. They are read today with the same delight in Japan and in America.

No sentence could be more characteristic of Mr. Tagore than that which he wrote after receiving the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1913.
 "They have taken my shelter from me" he wrote, when he realized that he would now be known the world over. He had been satisfied to remain in obscurity as far as the world was concerned, content to delight his own countrymen with songs of matchless beauty.

One striking feature about the work of Mr. Tagore is that he writes his verses in his native tongue and then translates them himself into English. The purity and charm of his English renditions doubles the admiration one feels toward this wonderful man.

Perhaps the most widely read of Mr. Tagore's works are his Crescent Moon, Song Offerings, and Realiza- tion of Life.

SENIOR ELECTION

In order to complete their class organization the lofty seniors met last Friday, Oct. 6, to elect officers to fill vacancies caused by the failure of some of the old officers to return.
 Both the president and vice president have returned, but the secretary-treasurer, W. A. Monson, who was elected last year is not back to school, so David Bowen was chosen to fill the vacancy. Mr. Dixon Kap-ple, Mr. J. W. Thornton, and Miss Pearl Sevy, were elected class committeemen, Mr. Geo. Holmstead athletic manager and Mr. Clyde Stratford class cheer leader. The office of debating manager is yet to be filled.

NOTICE:

Everybody be out on the athletic field east of the Main building Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 to see the Sophs. humiliate the Freshies in the class rush! Don't miss it!

There will be a Commercial Club meeting in Room 302 at 1:30 today, for the purpose of organizing the club. All Commercial men should be on hand.

We have been asked to announce that tickets or books at reduced rates may be purchased at the O. L.
 & I. by presenting U. A. C. Student Body cards.

The Camera club will hold its first meeting of the year Friday at four o'clock in Room 129. It is very important that all members attend.

DOLLAR PRIZE

In order to encourage students to compose new college yells, a prominent member of our student body has offered a $5.00 prize for the yell that best suits our college. This contest is open to all students under the following conditions:

That a copy of the yell be put in Student Life box and that a second copy be kept by the individual. The contest is to be decided by a committee of three and the winning yell is to be published through Student Life. The person holding the copy of the winning yell will be awarded the prize by the committee. The contest will be open for ten days.

DE LAVAL
Cream Separator
Supremacy

38 Years of De Laval Leadership

Supreme in Skimming Efficiency Over 38 years of experience and thousands of tests and contests have demonstrated the De Laval to be the only thoroughly clean skimming cream separator, under all the varying actual use conditions, favorable as well as unfavorable.

Supreme in Construction This applies to every part of the machine—to the bowl, the driving mechanism, the frame and the lining. The De Laval patent protected Split-Wing Tubular Shaft Feeding Device makes possible greater capacity, cleaner skimming and a heavier cream than can be secured with any other machine.

Supreme in Durability
 The De Laval is substantially built. The driving mechanism is perfectly oiled and the bowl runs at slow speed, all of which are conducive to durability and the long life of the machine. While the life of the other cream separators averages from three to five years, a De Laval will last from fifteen to twenty years.
