MUSIC DEPARTMENT POPULAR

JOHNSON'S WORK PRODUCING RESULTS

Appreciation of the excellent work being done by the Music Department is being expressed by the faculty and student body alike. Prof. C. R. Johnson is yet new in his present field of endeavor, but his efforts are already producing exceptionally satisfactory results. The choir is a credit to any institution and in the quality of the work it is doing is the equal of that done by any college or university in the state.

The entire Music department has received a much needed impetus. The productions of the band at this early date are the best in years, and the orchestra is doing promising work. The registration in the music school has passed all expectations. One hundred nine have registered for piano and vocal alone. The quality of the vocal work is such that an opera or an oratorio will be given before the year is over. This will give every student who has musical talent a splendid opportunity for development either as one of the principles in the cast or as a member of the choruses.

Prof. C. R. Johnson is well qualified to lead in all such work. He is a graduate of the B. Y. University music school and the National Summer School of Chicago, which he attended four summers. Besides this he spent a year at the Columbia Music school of the same city. He

Winter Course Opens Nov. 14

Realizing the need of bringing practical education within reach of those who are not able to attend regular school, the Utah Agricultural College a few years ago instituted what is known as a "winter course." The purpose was to educate the people by making this course which is open from November 14 to March 24, cover as wide a field as possible, that it might meet the needs of all classes.

This year the winter course will be far superior to what it has ever been before. The course has been completely re-organized and new departments have been added. In arranging this work those in charge are trying to make it conform as

FARMERS' HOP MONDAY NIGHT

Delore Nicholas, chairman of the Ag Club Ball committee, and a corps of fourteen helpers are busy completing preparations for the first big social function of the year. From indications the ball Monday night will surpass any party of its kind that the college has seen. The aim of the committee is not to make the Ag. Club dance a formal affair but to make the atmosphere at the Smart Gym. such that every student may come and feel perfectly at home. If present plans materialize an air of informal good will should be the predominant feature of the "farmer's hop."

A glance at the names of those who are in charge of the decoration and other details of the preparations is enough to assure anyone as to the success of the this agricultural festival. On the general committee Leo Sharp and Wm. J. Snow are working in conjunction with Mr. Nichols. Four committees of three each are in charge of the construction of booths, while the entire membership of the club is to be employed in decorating. Those who are supervising the construction of booths are: Heber Meeks, E. J. Kirkham, Heber Morrell, J. W. Poulter, Forest S. Slaugh, Foss Richards, Clarence Aldous, Morris Lowe, Jack Wright, Morrell Powell, Douglas Woodruff, and Wayne Braley.

These men are giving much time and thought to their work and the result of their effort will assuredly be worthy. No one should fail to show his appreciation of the work of the Ag. Club. Mr. Thornton extends a personal invitation to every student and to every friend of the A. C. to partake of the festivities next Monday night. A general admission fee of one dollar will be charged. Students will get tickets for fifty cents.

SPECIALS ORGANIZE

Since the Institution was placed on a strictly College basis there has been a number of students, designated as "specials," who have not been eligible for entrance in any of the regular classes. This number has steadily increased until this year, when it became so large that it was deemed expedient to organize them into a class. Accordingly an election was called for last Saturday, when the following officers were chosen:

President, Ivan W. Holt.
Vice President, Mabel Peterson.
Secretary-Treasurer, Clay Cummings.

All of these students have had considerable experience prior to their coming here, so they should be able to make the first year of this class a most successful one.

The special class is made up primarily of two kinds of students: (1) Those who have not enough credits to be eligible to join one of the regular classes, and (2) students registered for short practical courses. This year marks the beginning of this class in the school. Although a new thing it is almost sure to be a success, because of the large and ever-increasing number of

PERIWIGGERS ENTERTAIN

OPEN AIR PERFORMANCE HUGE SUCCESS

Before an appreciative audience composed of students and town people, the Periwig Club scored a signal success Wednesday in its presentation of Lady Gregory's comedy, Hyacinth Halvey. This pleasing one-act play presents an amusing situation and the lines fairly beam with humor. The quaint Irish phrasing only serves to heighten the effect of the clever lines.

Though the action centers about Hyacinth Halvey, there is no opportunity for any one character to monopolize the honors. The work is well divided, which fact makes the play peculiarly adapted to a cast of stars such as compose the Periwig Club.

Speaking generally, the Periwiggers might well have spent more time in becoming familiar with their lines. Aside from a slight hesitation which was apparent at times, the actors threw themselves into their parts very successfully and led their audience to the butcher shop of Mr. Quirke, where all partook of the spirit of the amusing situation there presented. Bervard Nichols

POLITICS AT U. A. C.

WILSON AND MORRIS ARE STUDENTS' CHOICE

From the result of the ballot taken at the College last Friday, it is apparent that the recent visit of Mr. Bamberger did not win for him many votes. Many students voted a "split" ticket and in numerous cases the name of Mr. Morris was found between those of Wilson and King. It was quite evident that many students of Democratic inclination deliberately scratched the name of the gubernatorial candidate of their party.

Wilson overwhelmed Hughes, the President obtaining a total of 287 votes, while the ex-judge garnered only 122. Morris also defeated Bamberger in a decisive manner, the vote being 230 to 163 in favor of the former. The only really close contest was that between the candidates for the senatorship. Here King nosed Sutherland out, the ballot standing 186 and 179.

AGGIES LOSE AT RENO

CLOSE GAME ENDS 9 TO 7

In a game where our own team clearly showed a superiority in the essentials of football, Nevada succeeded in nosing out a 9-7 victory on the Mackay field at Reno last Saturday. Though the score would indicate differently, it was frankly admitted by practically all who witnessed the game that Watson's men were clearly the better trained team. In fact, during the latter part of the game, the Aggies played the offense almost entirely, but were prevented from scoring by costly fumbles and penalties.

The scoring began in the first quarter when Hill for Nevada copied a long forward pass and landed a touchdown. Nevada missed goal. In the second quarter the teams were so evenly matched that the ball merely zig-zaged up and down the field with no further scoring.

At the beginning of the second half the Aggies took the aggressive. By a series of line bucks and sensational end runs they succeeded in

Sorosis Observe Hallowe'en

ANNUAL PARTY UNIQUE

Enmeshed in a fantastic veil of uncanny weirdness, peering into blank white masks, one hundred shrouded anonymous figures moved through the October mists of Hallowe'en evening, and congregated at the Eccles home. Here these fantastic spirits of the night mingled in shaded lights, and swayed and danced to the music of the victrola. Meantime, they drank at the luscious bowl and minced at Winter Pearmain.

Following the directions on his card, each white-shrouded swain, searched out, for each dance, the fair one whose number was his. This constant search for elusive "yamas," constituted one of the exciting features of the evening.

The last half of the evening followed the peremptory command of George Caine to "unmask." Some discoveries occurred at this point.

Finally, the tide of excitement, joy and hilarity reluctantly ebbed, and the "yamas" having been bantered away, the revealed ghosts departed, two by two, and heels clicked along the silent streets.

IDAHO "TECH" DOWNS FRESHIES

HOT CONTEST ENDED BY 13-6 SCORE

In a game full of football snap and thrills the team from the Idaho Technical Institute won from the Frosh Saturday afternoon by a 13 to 6 score. The Idaho boys played good ball but their best efforts would not have won for them a victory had both teams received equal watching from the umpire. Idaho was "umpte" over the Frosh goal for the first touchdown. The Frosh may have been offside, but the umpire was so busy watching their line that he forgot Idaho even had a line. At least twice Idaho was given five downs to make their yards.

Other than the favoritism shown by the umpire the game was altogether commendable, being intensely interesting. The Idaho players were fast and executed some clever plays.

Their open formation was puzzling to the Frosh, who were new at the game. Coach Goodspeed's men played good, consistent ball throughout the game. "Teddy" Bennion, stellar offensive runner, threw a few thrills into the crowd by his end runs, while Olson tackled, passed the ball, and punted with great skill. Cox plunged through the line at regular intervals when called upon by Whitmore, who played a good game at quarter. On the line Gardner at center and Woodruff at end played the best ball. Gardner intercepted two forward passes and played a good defensive game.

The Idaho boys scored their two touchdowns in the first quarter of play. At the beginning of the third quarter the Freshies came back strong and outplayed their opponents for one touchdown. Whitmore scored for the Frosh, by going over on a line buck.

The game fairly buzzed with "scrap" but both elevens played clean ball.

HADDOCK PRAISES A.C.

Wednesday morning Mr. Lon J. Haddock spoke to the students of the College at the weekly chapel exercises. In an eloquent address Mr. Haddock praised the work of the U. A. C. and brought forcibly to the minds of his hearers the great possibilities which confront the trained man and woman. In brief the message conveyed was that Utah contains untold resources, which are waiting for the advent of skilled men who can fully develop them. "Greater," he said "than the call to arms is the call for trained men to develop Utah's unlimited resources." Utah is calling for men who can teach finance and banking, men who can make community life better, and women who can make home life happier and can rear the coming higher citizenship of the State. "In the future, whatever Utah will be will be the reflection of the influence of her college students."

Volume XV. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1916. Number 7.

Ahtemus Ward Jr., and the editor of "Stoodent Life" will experience no difficulty whatever in "getting together" on the matter of college yells. It appears to us that a needlessly large number of our yells contain expressions which are offensive to many students, as well as to a large class of those who attend our athletic contests. When a college yell contains expressions distasteful to those who are expected to use it in arousing enthusiasm, that yell defeats the purpose for which it is employed. Imagine, for example, the girls of the college vigorously cheering "Rickety, rickety russ" etc! Offensive as some of the expressions in that yell and in "We are the sons of A. C." are to some men, what must be their depressing effect upon the ladies!

Were it necessary that we use expressions which are in bad taste in order to give vent to our pent up enthusiasm, there would be some excuse for such yells as those just referred to, but "Stoodent Life" believes that such expressions are not only needless but quite objectionable.

THE TIME TO SUPPORT.

Now is the time, above all times, when the football team should receive the wholehearted support of every student of the college and every member of the faculty. After three consecutive defeats, it is not easy for Coach Watson's boys to retain their enthusiasm, unless they are made to realize that the students have not lost interest in them, unless they know that the Student Body and Faculty are supporting them to a man. Let's go out and watch the boys work, let's show them that we are back of them and expect them to fight Utah as no team ever fought before. Let's show the Coach that we appreciate his work and are deeply interested in the preparation of the team for the battle at Salt Lake. Now is the time to let the boys know that we are watching and hoping.

BASEBALL?

Now that the various managers of activities are making out their budgets is the time for the Executive Committee to decide definitely whether or not we shall have baseball next spring. If we are to have baseball, we should have some money laid aside now to insure a successful season.

It seems to us that the matter of wearing full dress at the Ag. Club Ball is one which cannot be controlled by the Student Body. A sentiment against a distinctive dress may be created, but it seems unjust that those who have gone to the expense of purchasing dress suits be denied the privilege of wearing them on the few occasions when such a dress is appropriate. To us it appears that the essential thing that need be said in this regard is that those who have not dress suits need not hesitate even for a moment to attend the Ag. Club Ball. The time is far distant when the man in full dress will cease to be the exception at the College dances.

Having been especially invited by the President of the Student Body of the University, as many students as possibly can should begin now to plan a trip to Salt Lake with the football squad on the eleventh. Utah's victory over Boulder is a warning that our squad will need all the support we can give.

A LETTER

Dear Stoodent Life,

I hev red yure worthy paper of fen hearted. I like yure stile. I dont no what yure perillit centiments is, but mines the same as yourn. I want I shur get a chanct to rite for yure paper. My english is always the best and I nary let a article scape my hands, figgeritively speaking, thout kerrecting all the spelling missteaks, when I make em, which I seldom dose.

Sew hear goes. Their seams too be somethin ound schule that might be impruved a little, it seems to me, Stoodent Life. Let's you and me get together, put our shoulders to the wheel, and "rais the white and bloo to the place it held of yure" by heck. (That's a Cotashun) It strikes me, fer won thing, that their is a leetle to much swarling in our cologe yells. I dont mind a good holesum sware word when its needed. If a feller dropped a to ton safe outen a fifth (5th) story winder and it jues missed me, I'd feel like swarling myself, when I got my breth. (I'd feel more like swarling if he missed me than if he hit me. Thats a joak.) But I aint got much use fer the man who tries to git somethin to happen so's he kin sware at it. Somehow it dont cum from the hart. It aint wuth much. And I dont think a stoodent body whuts continerally shouting "dam" and "hell", and seech things, jest to here theielves sware, hes got much respect for theielves. And I no other peple haint got much use fer them.

I hoap you agree with me, Stoodent Life. Hoaping you air in fust class condishun, and that yure livvers all rite I remane, cincerely yures, adoo, adoo,

WINTER COURSE OPENS NOV. 14

much as possible to the needs of all the people. These may be divided into two classes.

1st. Those men and women who want practical work which they can utilize as soon as they leave school;
2nd. Those who are desirous of obtaining a college education, but who can not arrange to attend during the regular school year.

The first group is by far the most important and is being emphasized much more than is the second. There is a great class of people in the state who, because of their responsibilities, are not able to go to school, yet they need more education and are anxious to get it. As they have but limited time to devote to study their work must necessarily be very practical. It is primarily for these people that the winter courses are designed. The course of study covers nearly every phase of the work of the farmer, the housewife, the carpenter and mechanic, and the business man. In addition to these, short courses in art are offered, so that the man or woman registered for the winter course has practically as great a variety of subjects from which to select as has the regular college student.

The second class is composed of people who, like the first class, are unable to attend during the regular school year, but who desire a general college education. For them short courses are arranged in order that they may pursue work leading to a degree.

As before stated, quite a number of new courses have been added this year, among which are the new courses in practical irrigation and canal management, which will prove of great interest and benefit to all agriculturists. The course in canal management includes such features as irrigation accounts, charges for water and method of assessment, duty of water, canal upkeep, and water right problems, with particular reference to Utah conditions. The course in practical irrigation covers such topics as measurement of water, capacities of different soils to retain water, desirable quantities to apply in single irrigations, proper frequency of irrigations, best sizes of streams to use for irrigating different soils, etc. There is great need in the state for a more complete understanding of irrigation practice, and it is felt that these new courses will prove invaluable in disseminating such information.

These courses have proven very popular in the past, and the belief that they will be more so this year is supported by the great number of inquiries regarding them at the State Fair, and also by the fact that we already have students registered for them, although they do not begin until November 14.

It is anticipated that this year's registration will be at least double and probably triple that of last year.

 Purebred registered Holstein cows hold all records, and the bright and shining high marks of production which enthrall Holstein owners and amaze the world are, forty-four and forty-two hundredths lbs. butter and 808.5 lbs. milk in 7 days; one hundred seventy-one and four hundred ninety-seven thousandths lbs. butter and 3,242.6 lbs. of milk in 30 days; and fifteen hundred and six and thirty-six hundredths lbs. of butter and 31,239.4 lbs. of milk in 365 days. The Holstein cow in her rapid forward march of progress is so profuse with remarkable achievements that even the above wonderful figures are "subject to change without notice."

PERIWIGGERS ENTERTAIN

 sustained very well his part of Hyacinth Halvey, an innocent and not too sound young man who strives to escape the praise which is being heaped upon him. Morrell Powell, as Fardy Farrell, did not for an instant forget that he was nothing but a half-witted messenger boy. Zelda Kirkham, the enterprising post-mistress of Cloon, lived up to her reputation by producing a laugh every time she moved or spoke. Delore Nichols lived the part of the worried butcher, Mae Edwards, as Miss Joyce seemed perfectly at home, while Lowry Nelson made a dignified Sergeant Carden.

Miss Huntsman and her proteges are to be highly complimented on their choice of a play and on the manner of its interpretation.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT POPULAR

 was associate professor of music at the B. Y. University and while there took the leading role in many operas of special merit, among them being Baccaccio, The Beggar Student,
 The Daughter of the Regiment, etc.
 He played the leading role in the Sun Dance twenty one times and in Pinafore six times.

Professor Johnson is keenly appreciative of the interest and friendly attitude of the faculty and the students. We believe that great things will come from the A. C.
 Music Department.

LOYAL ROOTERS

Come, all ye loyal rooters!
 While your hearts overflow with joy, Bring your banners and bring your festive megaphones,
 And we'll root for A. C. U.
 Come, let's show the proper spirit,
 Join in lusty cheer and song,
 We will down our opponents with our joyous yells,
 Just to help the game along.
CHORUS
 Don't forget your dear old Alma Mater,
 Be true to the White and the Blue.
 O, we must win this game today!
 The loyal bleachers call to you.
 Oh, boys! A touchdown (basket)
 comes in handy,
 That's the stuff! Rip the University!
 Just remember you're fighting for U. A. C.
 And you're sure to win the victory.

THE SCOTCHMAN

Show me the Scotchman who doesn't love the thistle!
 Show me the Englishman who doesn't love the rose!
 But show me the true-hearted Aggie
 of Utah

Who doesn't love the spot — (3 stamps)
 Where the sage-brush grows!

AGGIE COLORS

Aggie colors are flying today,
 Aggie warriors enter the fray, Steady and true we shall win our way through,
 Honor the white and blue,
 Never yielding we'll fight to the end,
 With courage never failing,
 So we'll shout with our might
 For the blue and the white,
 U-tah A-g-g-i-es.

ALEXANDER'S BAND

The Aggies meet the U today
 Bzt Bzt (whistle)
 Lord-a-massy how we will play,
 Bzt Bzt (whistle)
 When Utah sees our colors float
 She'll know that we are after her goat,
 Sing Tiddy-i-um Sing Tiddy-i-o
 Bzt Bzt Sing Tiddy-i-o.

Our team is out for a big fat score
 Bzt Bzt (whistle)
 Whatever they make we'll call for more
 Bzt Bzt (whistle)
 Then Brig and Stubby will circle the end
 And Twitchell over the line we'll send,
 Sing Tiddy-i-um Sing Tiddy-i-o
 Bzt Bzt Sing Tiddy-i-o.

We'll call the signals the ball we'll seize
 Bzt Bzt (whistle)
 A touch-down Aggies now if you please,
 Bzt Bzt (whistle)
 Take the ball, we'll give the yell
 And altogether give Utah hell
 Sing Tiddy-i-um Sing Tiddy-i-o
 Bzt Bzt Sing Tiddy-i-o.

Senior Court Organized

The officers of the Senior class met last Monday night at the home of Mr. A. E. Palmer and discussed thoroughly plans for the work of the class during the coming year.
 The Senior Court was organized,
 the question of class dues was discussed, plans for the adoption of a senior garb were laid, and the question of the advisability of perpetuating the Senior Circus was well threshed out. It was the opinion of those present at the meeting that the Senior Circus need not become a tradition and the officers decided to recommend to the class that no circus be undertaken this year.

Mr. J. W. Thornton was appointed Judge of the Senior Court. Morrell Powell and Grant Ivins were chosen to conduct the prosecution of offending class members, while Harold Peterson and Morris Lowe were appointed to defend those brought before the court.

The Senior class is now well organized, and under the leadership of Mr. Palmer should have a successful year.

AGGIES LOSE AT RENO

 locating the ball on Nevada's ten yard line when Kapple scored a touchdown on a line plunge. Kap-ple also kicked goal. Nevada in turn took the ball and advanced it to Utah's fifteen yard line where Buckman drop-kicked a field goal, running Nevada's score to 9 as against our 7. No further score was made in the 4th quarter, though Nevada once more attempted a field goal from the 45 yard line.

SENIORS AND SOPHS TIE; FRESH- IES WIN FROM JUNIORS

Two games of the 1916 class football series are now history and history worthy the recorder's pen.

The Freshmen only managed to win, when they put the championship hopes of the Juniors in cold storage for a year, by defeating them 6 to 0. The Seniors and Sophmores battled to a 6 to 6 tie last Friday and are playing off the "rubber" as we go to press.

In the Senior Soph game Herold Peterson and Calder Smith in the back field and Ivor Sharp at left end were the stars for the upper classmen while Egbert and Larsen, end, and Croft at fullback were the main stars of the second year team.

For the winning Freshies, Smith,
 Statton, and Geddes in the back field were the real ground gainers. Hatch and Halton divided honors for the Juniors,

The most important of all butter-scoring contests are those that take place at the National Convention of the National Buttermakers' Association, held in recent years in conjunction with the National Dairy Show. The first prize winners at every convention of the association since its organization in 1892 have been as follows—all De Laval users:

1892 Madison, Wis.—Louis Bra- he, Washington, Ia.	Minn. World's Fair Grand Prize Butter.
1893 Dubuque, Ia.—C. W. Smith, Colvin's Park, Ill.	1906 Chicago, Ill.—A. Carlson, Rush City, Minn.
1895 Rockford, Ill.—F. C. Oltro- ge, Tripoli, Ia.	1907 Chicago, Ill.—A. Lindblad, North Branch, Minn.
