Journal Subject Area: Human-Wildlife Interactions publishes manuscripts on all aspects of human-wildlife interactions, particularly research articles in wildlife management, wildlife ecology, management applications, economics, and human dimensions. We encourage letters to the editor, opinion pieces, point-counterpoint articles, policy issues, and notes on research and new techniques.

How to Submit Manuscripts: Submit manuscripts online at digitalcommons.usu.edu/hwi. The policy of HWI requires authors to cover page charges of $100 per published page (about 2.5 double-spaced manuscript pages comprise a published page). These charges allow HWI to operate. Anyone is welcome to submit a manuscript. Email hwi@usu.edu with inquiries.

Subscriptions: Human-Wildlife Interactions is an open access journal. Printed back issues may be available and can be purchased for $10 each (domestic) or $20 each (foreign). Inquire about the availability of a printed back issue by contacting hwi@usu.edu.

Advertisements: Human-Wildlife Interactions accepts digital advertisements. For advertising specifications, contact hwi@usu.edu.

Articles appearing in Human-Wildlife Interactions are included in the following research indexes: Animal Behavior Abstracts, Aquatic Sciences and Fisheries Abstracts, Biological Abstracts, BIOSIS Previews, Current Contents, Directory of Open Access Journals, EBSCO, Ecology Abstracts, SCOPUS, Science Citation Index Expanded, Thomson Reuters' Journal Citation Reports, Web of Science, Web of Knowledge, Wildlife and Ecology Studies Worldwide, Wildlife Review Abstracts, Wilson's Biological and Agricultural Index, and Zoological Record.

Cover photo: Species translocation remains a popular mitigation tool despite concerns about the contribution to population conservation. In this issue, read about efforts in Arizona to use translocations to conserve a population of protected common chuckwalla (Sauromalus ater) as mitigation following a highway reconstruction (*photo courtesy of D.
