AGGIES VERSUS UNIVERSITY

BOULDER BEATEN BY ROMNEY'S BATTLERS

Aggies Outclass Their Opponents; Falck Plays Sensational Game

Agricultural College of Utah19
University of Colorado7

The Utah Aggies came back strong in their second game of the Colorado tour and defeated the University of Colorado at Boulder Nov. 15, by the score of 19 to 7. Although the game was closely contested during the early stages, the Utahans completely outclassed the Colorado team and deserve the victory in every sense of the word.

Before the game the Colorado eleven was the favorite in the betting on the strength of the showing made against the University of Utah two weeks before at Salt Lake. Colorado "U" supporters claimed that had the game been played at Boulder instead of Salt Lake the Coloradoans would have won, but instead the Utah eleven won by the score of 7 to 0. Thinking that Utah was stronger than the Utah Aggies' Coach Mills did not hesitate to predict a victory, but much to his regret and surprise he found in the Utah Aggies, a stronger opponent, and a better team than the University of Utah had been.

The star performer of the game was the speedy and shifty "Luko" Falck, who piloted the Utahs to victory and also steered himself to many honors. A more detailed and vivid story of the game cannot (Continued on Page Two).

FIRST MAGPIE OUT TOMORROW

Juicy Bits of Humor For 15 Cents.

In the spring of the year there is a great deal of fuss made over the appearance of the first Robin. It is supposed to herald the glad tidings of spring. Tomorrow another bird will appear with even more welcome tidings than the Robin brings in the spring. Tomorrow the first Magpie will spread her wings and swoop through the halls.

The staff of the paper is willing to guarantee that this paper will positively be the best of its kind ever seen at the College. They are willing to recommend it most highly to all those who want just that kind of a magazine. The pages will be an full of cartoons and drawings as a plum pudding is full of prunes. Great gobs of energy and perspiration have been used to assure the complete success of this first issue.

The Magpie is a student publication in the fullest sense of the word. All students are invited to contribute choice bits of nonsense picked up around the school or town. If you have an idea that you think would make a good cartoon, hand it in and you will have the satisfaction of seeing it in the next issue. Last among the merits of this juicy (but not drippy) little sheet is the marvelous fact that it can be bought for the ridiculous price of fifteen cents. And about the only thing that fifteen cents can do these days is buy a half-pint of beet pulp at wholesale prices.

GIRLS ENJOY PHYSICAL ED.

Physical Education is a compulsory subject at the College. That, according to all unwritten college laws, should make it the most unsuccessful of all courses; and that is the reason we find it surprising that this year's classes in physical education among the girls are so enthusiastically successful.

To begin with, mountain scenery and cafeteria meals seem to have produced an abnormally strong group of girls. Doctor Porter's celebrated physical exams proved this year's lady Ags to be the healthiest aggregation that the College has ever coerced into the Smart gymnasium.

The majority of these are in the elementary classes, either P. E. 11 or 12. Here they go through a course of drill which would set the heart of any soldier, spend their "fat rests" doing folk dances, and emerge without even a tired feeling.

The other class is more wearing—the one in interpretative dancing. About thirty of the girls have joined, and are progressing toward a more or less graceful revue, later in the season.

Old Rivals Will Clash In Seventeenth Annual Battle For State Gridiron Title

Aggies Are Determined to Down Utah
Team Will Be Handicapped by Loss of Stars Through Injuries
But Expect to Make This Up By Fight
And Students' Support.

Students must present their student body cards at the game in Salt Lake or pay $1.50 admission.

In spite of the loss of players through injuries, the Utah Aggies are determined to fight their way to victory over the University of Utah on Thanksgiving Day as a fitting climax to the football season of 1919. Fight must characterize the players and true Aggie spirit the students next Thursday. The loss of McDonald and Falck should only stimulate the fighting spirit of the team and the rosters.

Injuries to players is a common occurrence in every football camp, but the hard luck that befell the Aggies while playing in Colorado and Wyoming the last three weeks is the hardest blow ever dealt a U. A. C. football team. It happened also on the eve of the crucial game of the season. But we are not through yet and every man on the team has adopted as his slogan, "Beat Utah."

The game will be played Thursday afternoon at Cummings field in Salt Lake. The U. A. C. students will occupy the east bleachers. From Salt Lake we have heard every day that there is trouble in the Utah camp; that dissension among players has upset the Crimmon and that Coaches Fitzpatrick and Callahan, are working hard trying to bring about a reconciliation. The latest report states that a peace powwow came about and that the Utah team will fight unitedly against the Aggies. One report published in a Salt Lake newspaper stated that Utah was practicing hard to "walk all over the Aggies." This does not take into consideration the fact that the Aggies refuse to be "walked upon."

After having wrestled with the warmth and humidity of Southern California the Utah aggregation came home last week to prepare for the Aggies. "Dad" Callahan is up on the field each night helping Tommy Fitz round the team into shape with his big willow. "Cally" gave the boys a talk the other night and from the reports of the meeting he must have wielded his tongue in William J. Bryan fashion, because Tommy himself didn't even get a chance to put in a word.

The Big Blue team needs no talking to. Only a few short hours remain before the annual clash and the Aggies, under "Ded," will give good account of themselves against the Utah clan which has been tutored by Fitzpatrick and Callahan. This game must be won. Every player realizes that.

As yet Coach Romney does not know just what his line-up will be. Falck will probably be out of the game. In Colorado, Falck played in such a fashion as to attract the critics and football scribes and will no doubt be accorded all-conference honors. Although he will be missed, the team has determined not to let his loss discourage them.

Utah will outweigh the Aggies, consequently this drawback will have to be made up in speed and head-work. The A. C. line will remain intact with Cannon, Worley, Crookston and Jarvis holding down their stations. In the backfield will be Hansen, and possibly McDonald and Dee, who were injured in the Wyoming game. In addition there are Hart and Nagle who have been showing up well in practice and played good ball in Colorado. They will be able to fill in the places left vacant by Dee and McDonald, if Dee is unable to play. Curley Bowen played quarter back in the last game and he will also be ready to hold down either a backfield or an end position.

In spite of all that has been said regarding the weakening of the team, the Aggies are ready for the battle and no one hesitates to say that the blue jerseyed Farmers will rise to the occasion.

WYOMING DOWNED BY ROMNEY'S WARRIORS

Score Not Indicator of Strength of Teams—Falck, Dee And McDonald Injured

Utah Aggies 6
Wyoming U. 0

Playing on a wet and muddy field the Aggies won from the University of Wyoming Thursday, 6 to 0, but unfortunately, at the expense of disastrous injuries to a galaxy of the strongest Blue and White stars.

During the game Luke Falck, leading candidate for the position of all-Rocky Mountain conference quarterback, and "Frog" McDonald, the hard-hitting fullback of the Farmers, were injured to such an extent that they will be out of the game on Thanksgiving Day. Falck sustained a broken collar bone and McDonald received additional injuries to a kidney that was bruised in the Colorado Aggie game ten days before.

Coach Romney did not send in all his first string men because he wanted to save them for the coming game with Utah, but fate caused that some of those who were expected to win an easy victory for Utah, should be disabled also.

Falck was injured early in the first quarter and McDonald shortly after. This weakened the lineup considerably. "Curly" Bowen, who is playing his first year of football for

COLLEGE ACCOUNTS CRITICIZED BY AUDITORS

Deputies Also Praise Work of College Officials—Make Recommendations

Just how the College handled its receipts and disbursements amounting to nearly three-quarters of a million dollars for the year ending June 30, 1919, is a matter which may interest all A. C. students.

A detailed statement of the various fund expenditures can not be printed for lack of space, but it is interesting to know that the difficult problems presented thru the war emergency and soldier training work have received much favorable comment, as well as many suggestions for improvement in the accounting system.

The auditors have praised the accuracy with which the accounts of such varied nature and large aggregates have been kept. But the prevailing system of accounting at the College they consider not to be up to the standard worthy of a large institution. Many minor discrepancies are pointed out, which make us curious to know whether the system of caring for the College finances may easily be improved; or if the auditors, in their lengthy and complicated report have considered that a report of this nature must of necessity contain many personal suggestions and recommendations.

SPECIAL RATE OF $3.35 GIVEN

Cars Will Probably Leave U. I. C. Depot at 8:30 a. m.

For the big Turkey Day game, through the kindness of Secretary of State Harden Bennion the College is enabled to secure a rate of $3.35 round-trip over the U. I. C. electric route, commencing Thursday morning and lasting until Sunday night. Regular rates are $6.05 round trip.

The committee appointed to secure rates has put in some hard licks and deserves much commendation for the very favorable results obtained.

The cars will leave the Interurban depot at 8:30 Thursday morning. Every student is expected to be at the station with all the enthusiasm possible to muster, to last over the trip and the game on Cummings field. The results of the game depend to a large extent upon the spirit which the students instill into the team and 700 wild-eyed students rooting for the team, will go a long way toward bringing home the Crimmon bacon.

In the inspired words of Patrick Henry or some other blessed patriot:

"Lives there a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said We'll go to Salt Lake And win this game?"

FIRST FORUM TODAY AT 4:00

The meeting of the open Forum has been postponed from Thursday, November 20 to tonight, (Nov. 25) at 4:00 p. m. The meeting will be held in the chapel as previously stated.

President Morris Christensen of the Agora Club announces that the teams for this first debate will be made up as follows: Affirmative, Helen Gubler, Jack Hendricks; negative, Joseph Reed and Lawrence W. Jones. The question is: Resolved that the United States should adopt Compulsory Arbitration of Labor Disputes.

At this meeting the future policy of the Forum will be discussed. The questions chosen for debate in the future will be narrower in their scope, requiring more individual reasoning and less research in the literature on the question. If there is a demand for the debate of religious questions and no reason is shown why such questions should not be debated, some of the argumentation taking place in the halls will be aired in the meetings.

This meeting is for every one who enjoys listening to a test of wits through the great art made famous by Daniel Webster and Abraham Lincoln. Remember the date: Tuesday at 4:00. Bring a friend if you can keep her quiet.

WINTER QUARTER COMMENCES DEC. 8

Many New Courses Offered; Six Special Conventions; Registration Dec. 4, 5, 6

The Winter Quarter at the Agricultural College of Utah will begin December 8. An attractive Winter Quarter Bulletin has just been published by the College, stating that on December 8, 216 courses in 47 departments will be open to students. Upon permission from the instructor, many other courses may also be entered.

The Winter Quarter will be the best of the school year. The College life of the institution will be in full swing. Lyceum numbers, college dramatics, the college opera, debating, art exhibits, oratorical contests and athletic events will enliven the period of greater school activity.

The U. A. C. Farmers' Round-up and Housekeepers' Conference will be the largest ever held and will take place this winter from February 2 to 7. Experts from all over the United States will be brought to Logan to lecture.

A tractor school will begin January 19 and run for four weeks. Eight hours work each day is provided for this course. A school beginning January 19th and running for two weeks will teach the care and breeds of poultry. This school is open to both men and women. (Continued on page six)

New Equipment For Mechanic Arts Building

The school of Mechanic Arts has just installed a complete oxy-acetylene welding plant, large enough to maintain 12 welding torches. A welding school will begin at the institution December 8 and a special six weeks course in welding given. This is the only school to be established west of Chicago and it is thought that many auto mechanics throughout the Rocky Mountain region will be attracted to the College to secure training in this work.

According to Professor Humphreys of the Mechanic Arts department, the call for trained welding experts induced the College to install this elaborate welding equipment. Twenty-four men can now be trained in each school of six weeks duration. The students in training will be given one-half day of welding and one-half day in machine and blacksmith work.

In addition to the welding equipment, the school of Mechanic Arts will install many other machines for the opening of the winter course work. These will include wood mortising machinery and lathes for the wood working department, and engine lathes, drill presses, grinding machines, shapers and many other small machine tools for the machine department. Upon installation of this new equipment the Mechanic Arts department will be fully equipped.

EXTRACT OF MINUTES OF THURSDAY'S S. B. MEETING

Thursday's student body exercises were in preparation for the home coming of the varsity squad and a general football whoop-up before the Thanksgiving climax.

Harold Alvord presented plans for meeting the train on Friday.

Several announcements were made, and the rest of the meeting devoted to a song and yell practice.

Class meetings of juniors and freshmen followed.

The juniors, deep in their plans for the Buzzer and the Prom, conducted a spirited meeting that lasted about ten minutes. A committee to select class colors was appointed. Fred Felle was appointed chairman of a freshman committee to formulate plans for the class booth at the Prom. Bramwell Peck will fill the new office of class reporter.

The Mighty Minds of Student Body Meet

The governing body of the Student Body Organization met (as unusual) Wednesday. As the majority of the council had just finished their lunch the meeting was longer than usual, due to the fact that people with full stomachs are in no hurry to leave comfortable chairs in a warm room. The sensation of the meeting was a report by Secretary Coburn that the student body had not in excess of a hundred votes in the election for the student body officers.

Mr. Bateman, debating manager, asked the committee if they would appropriate the necessary money to send a debating team to Oregon A. C., or possibly Minnesota or Michigan A. C. in case we could sign a contract with these schools. In order to conform with the traditional attitude on medals, there is an agitation to have the debating medal changed. Mr. Bateman asked the attitude of the committee on this. He was disposed of in a very efficient way by being asked to submit an estimated list of expenses for the proposed trip and the vote of the Agora Club on the changing of the medal. The chair was given power to appoint a committee to arrange for the reception to be given the Big Blue team on their return. The members of the executive committee have had enough experience in the army to be well-grounded in the art of "passing the buck."

MEMBERS OF GLEE CLUB ARE NOW CHOSEN

As a result of selections upon a competitive basis which were completed Friday, Professor Johnson announces the personnel of the Glee Club to be as follows:

First Tenors—Archie Barney, Earl Denning, John S. Dutton, J. L. Spencer.

Second Tenors—Chase Keal, Theras O. Allred, Rodney Pack, Ernest Baker, C. J. Stringham.

THE STUDENTS SHOULD DO IT

We uphold the action of the faculty in dismissing from the College a certain individual for action unbecoming of a student of the Agricultural College of Utah, but why didn't the students do it?

In taking this step, which it is hoped will serve as a warning and an example to others who might have like inclinations and tendencies, the students should have taken the lead.

Student Life advocates that the students themselves, through the student body organization and a vigilance committee, which should have full and absolute authority to maintain discipline at the College, deal with all such cases hereafter. This is not a faculty function.

If this is a college, let the students assert themselves; if not, let the faculty fight our battles. When the faculty has to step in, like a solicitous mother, to punish violators of college rules and traditions, it indicates that the students are helplessly unable to cope with the situation themselves.

When the students of the Agricultural College of Utah become absolutely self-governing, and assume the authority which is theirs if they would but take it up, this College will have taken a decisive forward step.

STUDENT LIFE OUT AT 1 O'CLOCK

Hereafter Student Life will be distributed on Friday between the hours of 1:00 and 2:00. No copies will be issued after that hour.

A limited number of copies will be printed—just enough to supply the students with one copy each. Some students are "hogs" and take enough copies to supply their family, sweetheart, and the neighbor next door. This will be strictly prohibited by giving each student one copy and those who come after 2 o'clock will be deprived of that.

There will be no Student Life issued next Friday.

The Aggies, replaced the speedy Falck, and played the position for over three quarters.

Wyoming has the best team in the history of the institution this year, and at that they were comparatively easy for the Utahns. One lone touch-down, without the additional one point of the goal kick, was enough to win, but the Aggies threatened many times to score and had the ball on Wyoming's five yard line twice. They outplayed Wyoming during the entire game. Utah made first down 18 times for a total of 275 yards while the home team gained first down 12 times for 140 yards.

"Fat" Worley's work with his toe was the feature of the game. He kept the ball far from the Aggie goal by his long kicks whenever the Utahns were held.

The touchdown was scored by "Perc" Hansen in the second period on a line plunge. A forward pass caught by Andrus enabled the Aggies to get within scoring distance. Goal was missed and this was the only score of the game.

To be found than the following press-report from Denver:

The attacks of Coach Romney's team were irresistible. A more varied offense has not been seen on a Colorado gridiron in years. In fact, the features of the game, outside of the runs of Falck, were varied plays of Aggies pulled on their opponents. The Colorado men had what they termed "a defense for ordinary plays."

When the contest first started, Colorado, by the aid of some clever forward passes, soon had a touch-down, and it was thought for a while that the Utah eleven would be unable to get going. As a matter of fact, there was not a single break in the game but that went against the Aggies. It seemed impossible for them to have any luck of any kind whatsoever, so that, was solely a question of their ability under adverse circumstances to win the game. After Colorado had made its first score, Mr. Falck and his obligation came to the Colorado fifteen-yard line, only to lose the ball on a fumble. They, however, got the ball again in the center of the field, and with the aid of some wide end runs by Falck, Hansen and Dee they put the ball on the one-yard line, from where Falck went over. Worley kicked goal.

Then began a series of plays by Utah in an endeavor to win the game in this third quarter. On several different occasions they would start for a touchdown, only to lose the ball on a fumble or be penalized at the crucial situation. The first half ended with Utah in possession of the ball on the three-yard line.

At the beginning of the second half, Colorado, lashed into a fury by the remarks of their coach and almost put the Utah eleven on the ropes by a consistent offense, with the result that the fans in the grandstand became convinced that the game would end in a 7 to 7. Mr. Falck and the rest of the Aggies had different intentions, and in the fourth period, after several plays had failed, started their march to the goal. When this side of the fifty-yard line and about five yards from the Aggie goal, Falck called a signal, and when he went to pass the ball there were no halfbacks present, so, utilizing considerable gray matter, he dodged two tacklers, went down the sideline for fifteen yards and then ran through three more Colorado tacklers and ended up under the goal post.

It was a most brilliant run and executed to perfection, while the Colorado team appeared stupefied by this performance. With only a Matter of Student Body Awards Now Being Debated in Conference Circles

A booklet has recently been issued by the student body organization of the College containing yells, songs and the constitution and by-laws of the organization.

It is of vital importance that the students familiarize themselves with the contents of this book. Every student is affected by the constitution and by-laws and should be thoroughly conversant with the rulings of the document.

Just at present the question of athletic awards is being given an airing. The attitude of the student body in this matter is clearly defined in the constitution but the Rocky Mountain conference rulings must be obeyed if the A. C. would still be a member of that organization. When the war started the conference ruled that all athletic awards should be discontinued indefinitely. In accord with this precept no awards have been given by the student body of the College since the close of the football season in 1917 when the ruling went into effect.

The executive committee and athletic council, together with the same organizations at the University of Utah, will endeavor, through their representatives, at the annual Christmas meeting of the conference in Denver, to have some system of awards adopted, though in all probability it will not be the one that existed before the war.

It is understood that some of the Colorado schools have vigorously opposed the awards system in the past and may endeavor to block the proposed re-establishment of any such system. Whatever is agreed upon must be by unanimous vote of all schools in the conference. It can easily be seen that one school can block any proposed proposition; however it is believed that a satisfactory arrangement can be made.

The U. A. C. as well as all other conference schools, is affected by Rocky Mountain Conference rulings that control all college athletic activities, including freshmen sports. This being true it was impossible for the College athletic committee to grant permission for the awarding of sweaters to the freshmen football team, for in so doing the College would have been liable to expulsion from the conference. If awards cannot be granted the varsity squad under the present ruling, neither can the Fresh team be awarded, deserving as they most assuredly are.

Few minutes left to play. Falck threw a forward pass to Andrus, who ran thirty yards for a touchdown. This ended the scoring of the day, and as Falck failed to kick the last two goals, the final result was 19 to 7.

The work of the entire Aggie team at times bordered on the sensational, and too much praise cannot be extended to Colorado, for they played hard and furious to the best of their ability. Dee handled punts well. He had the record of the day, in that he never dropped one and caught a great many on the dead run. Worley kicked well and Cannon at center showed that he was entitled to all conference honors by the great game he played. Jarvis was a tower of strength, both on offense and defense. He made some of the prettiest tackles of the day and he was so deadly accurate that it was impossible for the Colorado back to return any of the passes. McDonald, who, by the way, went in to the game injured, played great ball, as did another cripple, Crookston.

For Colorado, Schrefferman, Costello and Franklin played well. The Utah Aggies were penalized over a hundred yards, while Colorado was penalized forty yards. The game was played fast, and while the field was heavy and wet, the game was handled well under the circumstances.

It was a clean football game, with the best of spirit prevailing. Utah came out of the game in good condition.

DE LAVAL
SIMPLICITY

Simplicity in cream separator construction avoids waste and makes possible quick and easy handling of milk.

The De Laval Cream Separator is remarkably simple. Thousands of De Laval are run and cleaned by children every day.

This simplicity means long life and freedom from repairs, and is the outcome of over forty years of unquestioned leadership in cream separator inventing, developing and perfecting.

Every part has been developed to its highest degree of simplicity coupled with efficiency and the De Laval has earned for itself the name of being "the world's standard separator."

More De LAVALS in use than of all other makes combined.

TALKING ALL-CONFERENCE
SELECTIONS, HOW ABOUT
CANNON, FALCK AND JARVIS?

WHAT THEY SAY-- PROPHECIES AND REVELATIONS

Note.—The following are opinions of a few students and local townspeople regarding the outcome of the University-Utah Aggie game. The players are reticent and are loath to talk, but quote the old saw, "Actions speak louder than words."

"The College is very proud of the team and considers it unequalled in the history of the institution. Win or lose we shall be very proud of the record the men have made. The spirit of the student body this year is the best in the history of the College." — PRESIDENT E. G. PETERSON.

"We make one prediction. Win, lose or draw, the Aggies will fight till they drop. It looks like a win, though we are not as strong as we were two weeks ago."—DEL GARDNER, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BODY ORGANIZATION.

"The Aggies should win—and will."—LUCILE TALMAGE, ASSOCIATE EDITOR STUDENT LIFE.

"I find in my store of gossip enough facts about the Thanksgiving game to be able to state positively that the A. C. will win."—THE MAGPIE.

"We've heard from the has-beens and the will-be's, but the queen bee of the Aggie Annual says: 'No doubt about the Victory.'—BUZZER.

"With Glen in the game and Betas in the grand-stand, I'm sure we will make more points than Utah."—FLORENCE RISER, FOR BETA DELTAS.

"If Bracken and the subs get into the game, just you watch out, Utah. I have confidential advice from Rulon."—BLANCHE WORLEY, A LA THETAS.

"Knowing the team as a team, and each man as I do, I am sure that they will defeat Utah. I am confident that each man appreciates the loss of Latty, yet it has developed a determination to fight harder than ever."—GUY CARDON.

"We know our team will show the same fighting spirit as they have always shown. They appreciate what success means. They will be victorious."—LUTHER HOWELL, FOR COMMERCIAL CLUB.

"There is no apparent reason why the Aggie football team should not win the game Thanksgiving Day at Salt Lake. Their record in the past is excellent. They are full of fight and determination. The student body and the people of Cache county are with them. There is no doubt in my mind but what the game will be won by the Utah Agricultural College football team."—E. R. OWEN.

"With the success you have had during the present season and the

One of the most brilliant backfield performers in the Conference. A sensational open field runner and star at circling the ends. "Blackie" is small in size but makes up for it in fight and gameness. "Frog's" battering tactics won him recognition in Colorado.

NOTICE! ASPIRANTS TO TRACK AND HOOP FAME

Comes an announcement of great moment from Coach Romney. When you carve the turkey after the big game Thursday, Coach insists that if you have track and field aspirations begin to train in the Gym. Track men should direct their first months of working out toward the development of stamina by wrestling, playing basketball, pulling weights, etc. The object is to get into condition.

The basketball men are to be put thru one of the biggest series of winter's great indoor sport ever held at the school. All the hoopers on the football team will play units from the rest of the school. These units will be followed by an interclass series and there will be a Fraternity clash.

Class presidents should get their athletic managers appointed and see to it that their teams start practicing as soon as possible. A series of this sort should bring out all the talent in the College.

We still remember the defeat at the hands of Utah in Salt Lake last spring and "Dick" is anxious to get together enough talent to wipe it out.

A number of old stars are back and A. C. should have "some" basketball five this season.

possibility of your future success, we are with you for a cleaning up of the U. of U. on Thanksgiving Day."—JOHN WILSON, OF THATCHER CLOTHING COMPANY.

"The Aggies are going at a gallop that will be hard to stop. Thanksgiving Day's game will be a classic."—GEORGE BARBER, EDITOR STUDENT LIFE.

"We've got team work and pep, and we're gonna win."—H. BAXTER OF SORORIS BOOSTERS CLUB.

"With the united support of the greatest bunch of boosters in the Rocky Mountain District, the Aggies can't help but win the Thanksgiving game."—W. R. SLOAN.

"In spite of injuries we must have Utah's goat."—L. SMITH, FOR THE MEN'S SHOP.

"A woman's intuition tells me we're going down to Salt Lake to win."—CAPT. R. N. CAMPBELL.

"It is my honest opinion that we can beat U. of U. with a crippled team."—O. W. ADAMS.

"There is more honor to win success under difficulties. We have difficulties to overcome, therefore there will be no overconfidence but just enough road spirit and bulldog tenacity to win. Our honor will be that much greater. We must win."—M. R. HOVEY, SECRETARY COMMERCIAL BOOSTERS CLUB.

"The Aggie football spirit will require the most supreme efforts from the players on Turkey Day. The players will regard to this attitude in a way that will bring credit to the institution. We will win in spite of our injuries."—ATHLETIC COMMITTEE.

"The Turkey Day game will be a battle from whistle to whistle. No use talking, victory will be spelled: F-I-G-H-T."—RUSSELL CHUTE, ASSOCIATE EDITOR STUDENT LIFE.

"It's merely a question of how much blower your score will be Thursday."—LT. COL. R. P. HARTLE.

"The team has had a hard trip and some of our men are suffering from injuries, but we are going to offset this with even more fight than previously has been shown this year. With College and townspeople solidly behind us and with every man on the team giving his all, Utah will be unable to stop us."—CAPTAIN CANNON.

LET AGGIE COLORS FLOAT

Take your colors down to Salt Lake to the game. Every Aggie is proud of the Blue and White. Crimson supporters will have a plentiful supply of the Red and White to flaunt, as Aggies will need the Blue.

LAST FIGHTER THURSDAY

Knocking the knuckers and generating high explosive pep, the extra and last edition of the Booster will be ready for distribution on the "Aggie Special" to Salt Lake City Thanksgiving morning. Read it and weep tears of laughter for your friends, tears of joy for the Aggies, and tears of sorrow for the "U." Sorensen girls will again handle the distribution in that big-spirited, thorough manner which they have so ably demonstrated. University of Utah players, as well as the Big Blue Team will be featured, so you can compare notes and get the right "dope." Don't fail to get your copy, for a successful Booster means a successful Football Banquet. Sales are prohibited at the rate. Get your copy in Logan, at the depot, or on the "Special." COLORADO CRITIC DECLARES AGGIES "SOME TEAM"

From the "Denver Times" of November 17, we quote the following from R. M. Scott: "The showing of the University of Colorado against the Utah Aggies was a disappointment."

Coach Mills has built up a good defense and has developed some good individual players. He has been unable to perfect a sufficient variety of offensive plays to make his team look dangerous.

Injuries to stars has no doubt had a big effect in retarding the development of Mills' plans, but whatever the cause the Silver and Gold eleven looked woefully weak on the attacking side. The men fought gamely and broke up the Mormon plays with pretty good success, but when they had the ball they were unable to use anything but straight line plunges and end runs, which gained some ground but did not result in touchdowns.

The pulled off one good forward pass early in the game, but after that their passes did not even look dangerous. They did not uncover a single trick play for formation which their opponents were unable to solve. The Utah Aggies, on the other hand, had a bewildering variety of plays which were constantly threatening the break up of the game. Only the dogged fighting spirit of Colorado kept them from piling up an early lead. The Mormons played a much better game than they did against the Colorado Aggies a week ago. The plays which gave them their last two touchdowns and made the final score 19 to 7 were spectacular bits of work and deserved success."

Falck has displayed generalship qualities which are sufficient to rank him as one of the foremost quarters in the inter-mountain country. He has piloted the Blue team with less friction, perhaps, than any Aggie quarter has ever succeeded in doing. He never loses his head, is cool and composed during all emergencies, and exercises admirable judgment at all times when quick thinking is required. He has the absolute confidence of every man on the team which is a big factor in winning football games. In addition to being a master of headwork, "Luke" is one of the most scintillating open field runners seen on western gridirons for several years. He combines the speed of "Stub" Peterson and the ability to elude tacklers of Mase Steifel, Aggie quarter of last year and conference selection for the quarterback position.

Falck's retirement from the game on account of injuries should not affect his standing in the least, as he has already demonstrated his right to be classed as the best quarter in the conference.

When the final selection of the "big team" is made, no authority can justifiably overlook these three Aggie players who have made a name for themselves and the college while defending the Blue and White.

AGGIESTARS MERIT CONFERENCE HONORS

Intermountain football fans and sporting writers are beginning to announce their selections for the all-conference team with loud, blatant voices. Colorado critics are giving the players on various Centennial state teams practically every position. A certain scribe has slated but one Utah player for a berth on the premier aggregation of the Rocky Mountains. He concedes "Mit" Romney the quarterback position. His selection is as follows:

Dotson and Schweiger, tackles; Gresham and Briggs, ends; Rakekin, guard; Finesilver, center, Hartshorn and Schneider, halves; McTavish, fullback and Romney quarter.

The Utah Aggies are ingloriously overlooked, when as a matter of fact we have three men who rank as the equal of any players in the conference in their respective positions of center, end and quarter.

Cannon has played true to his sensational form in 1917, when he was unanimously chosen as all-conference center. "Platol" has no equal in the conference when it comes to passing far and true and he is a demon on defense, and also powerful at breaking holes in the opposing line. He is a tower of strength on Aggie eleven, and would materially strengthen any line in the conference.

Jarvis is one of the headiest and most versatile players who ever wore the Blue and White. There is no phase of the popular college game that "Pesty" is not thoroughly versed in. There is no surer tackler on any team in this region, and on running down punts and nailing difficult passes, the tricky little end is in a class by himself. He is not of the sensational player's type like Falck or as Steifel used to be, but plays in a cool-headed, matter of fact way that is deadly effective, and when he gets in the game he is there to stay.

Falck has displayed generalship qualities which are sufficient to rank him as one of the foremost quarters in the inter-mountain country. "Y" COUNCIL IS SELECTED

J. Waldo Parry Elected President of Organization—"Y" Is Assisting in Work of Securing Accommodations For Students

Friday afternoon in chapel, members of the student body were selected to compose the student Y. M. C. A. council. J. Waldo Parry was chosen as president, Karl Harris vice president and W. H. Bell secretary and treasurer. To co-operate with these officers were selected some ten councilmen: J. H. Hendricks, Victor Wallace, James Taylor, Irvin Henric, Clarence Turley, George F. Harmon, Wallace McBride, J. L. Spencer, John A. Orme and Rufus Richardson.

This group will have control of the "Y" work at the college.

An advisory committee selected from the faculty and from town business men, will be chosen at an early date to assist the student body workers in an effort to convass the city for the better accommodation of the students expected here next term.

The city has been mapped into districts which are being assigned to the various organizations. The unusual shortage of rooms and convenient boarding places must of necessity receive the attention of not only the faculty and "Y" committees, but of every student in college.

It is desired that any student having information which may lead to securing more rooms, or boarding places shall assist by giving such information to some member of the committee named or to Mr. Wrisley in the Y. M. C. A. room.

The "Y" has planned to establish an information booth for the convenience of the new term men and women.

The desire of the Y. M. C. A. is to assist the students. The variety of their efforts indicate the extent of the "Y" intentions, and the student body can show their good faith by cooperation.

"Service" Is Theme Of Cameron's Talk

"Men cannot live alone, but must live together and serve each other," was the message Dr. Frank K. Cameron brought us in chapel last Tuesday, Nov. 18. Doctor Cameron has charge of the chemical investigations of the American Smelting and Refining company of Salt Lake City. He was formerly a member of the faculty of Cornell University and later conducted chemical investigations in soils for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

One great thing the war taught us is that love of mankind for mankind must dominate our actions in the future. Group activities have been developed and we should realize the necessity of service. We served willingly during the war and should not stop now. Some few individuals seem to feel they deserve a rest, having done their share. "We must play the game through to the end, for life is a game, a wonderful sport," said Doctor Cameron.

"Money is not the sole reward of education," continued the doctor. "The professional man (and training as students makes us professionals) does not work for money alone. He expects little more than a bare living. As professional men we will have a greater opportunity to help each other. We will determine the life of the community in which we live, giving it its tone and character. We should, therefore, continue to advance, improving everything possible, and make an earnest attempt to serve our fellow men."

Dr. Frank L. West presided at the exercises, introducing Doctor Cameron as a very fruitful investigator. The choir sang "Hope Thou in God." Miss Melba Aldrich rendered the solo part. Prayer was offered by Dr. James H. Linford.

John T. Caine has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Take your colors with you. Let Blue and White fly in Salt Lake. They put heart into the team.

NOTICE

All students who are earning any part of their school expenses while attending school are urged to communicate with V. D. Gardner, room 126, in order that a record of their earnings, number of students, type of work, etc., may be had for school statistics.

Miss Connie Nelson spent last Tuesday in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Maycock has recently returned from a visit to Salt Lake and Davis counties. She spent two days in Salt Lake, working among the women at the Civic Center there.

Marion Harris, a prominent A. C. student of 1918, was here for a short time on Saturday. Mr. Harris did post graduate work here. He is at present a member of the faculty of the L. D. S. University.

Colonel Fall was here on November 22 to inspect the cadet battalion.

James R. Miner visited the College last week. Mr. Miner, a former Aggie, is planning to enter the Rush Medical College soon.

Les Frank, an Aggie student a few years ago, and a member of the Pi Zeta Phi fraternity was on the campus last week.

Dr. M. H. Harris of the extension division has returned from Richfield, where he went in the interests of Boys' and Girls' Club work.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CAFETERIA

In keeping with the policy of the Cafeteria to give the best service, several improvements have been made recently. These improvements make it possible to serve a greater variety of food, to serve it more quickly and they also make the dining room much more attractive.

A new fifteen-foot counter has been placed along the south wall where the empty dish rack formerly was. This additional display surface is used for the salads, pastries and deserts. It permits the display of a greater variety and also makes it possible for the management to replenish the supply more easily.

Undoubtedly the best and most appreciated innovation was the moving of the empty dish rack from the dining room into the hall. The present arrangement eliminates a great deal of the confusion that formerly prevailed and gives a decidedly pleasing effect to the dining room. The crowd is now kept moving in one direction.

In a few days the water tap will be moved.

COACH LOWELL ROMNEY
"Dick" Aggie Mentor

The Coach faces the crucial test of his coaching career Thanksgiving Day and is confident that his men will give a good account of themselves.

"Our team played three of the hardest teams in this conference on the Colorado trip. The games undoubtedly have told on the men. Falck is out of the game for the season and McDonald and Dee are badly hurt. These losses weaken our team a great deal but fight will win Thanksgiving day and the Aggies have all kinds of that. The team showed as much fight in the Wyoming game as I have ever seen a team show."—COACH ROMNEY.

COMMERCIAL CLUB VISITS SUGAR FACTORY

About twenty of Utah's future captains of industry visited the Amalgamated Sugar Company's Logan factory on Saturday, Nov. 15th. This was the first of a series of visits to industrial plants in the state that the Commercial Club intends to make during the present school year.

The club members met at the Intermountain station at 1:30 p. m. where they were loaded into autos and driven to the factory. The party was met at the factory by the company officials and were shown every courtesy possible. The factory superintendent conducted the men through the mill and explained the intricate processes involved in turning the beets into sugar.

The factory has a capacity of 750 tons of beets a day, but owing to the muddy condition of the beets this year it is cutting considerably under that at present. The company inaugurated the eight hour system this year and the officials say it is giving perfect satisfaction. Everyone was impressed by the great amount of capital invested for the short run of three or four months. After voting the trip a great success the fellows returned to Adams field in time to see the Frosh nose out the B. Y. C. team in a fast game of football.

FROSH DEFEATS OGDEN
Scotts freshmen triumphed over the Ogden High School football team Saturday on Adams field in the last game of football of the year on local grids.

The score was 33-0. This makes an almost unbroken string of victories for the Frosh.

One Hundred Twenty-five Members of Business Men's Gym Classes Participate In Swim And "Spread"

Approximately one hundred Commercial business men who make up the night gym classes were present at the College last Friday evening when an informal social event was staged.

The evening began with a swim in the Thomas Smart gymnasium pool and ended with a big dinner and speech making in the cafeteria.

The principal speaker of the evening, Superintendent Edward Hinkley of the Industrial School at Ogden, made an impressive address on the subject of juvenile crime. Superintendent Hinkley is a speaker of unusual interest and strength. His explanation of the purpose of industrial institutions was much of a revelation to those who were present.

Opinion is unanimous in proclaiming it the finest evening of the kind ever spent at the College.

Near Humor

Mr. George Bateman, the one time Pan-Hellenic candidate, proposes to send the debating team to the far East. Present advices leave us guessing whether this may be India or Japan.

Boarder in Cafeteria: Hey, Cool-ey! This doesn't taste like oyster soup at all; kindly let 'em wade thru again, will you?

Croft, after hearing very lengthy lecture on irrigation: "Plenty of confab, but I'll pass if that Prof. doesn't know more about wind than water."

In a "Frosh" theme recently prepared for N. A., appears the honest statement of one who may fall the Quill Club, but he's material for future Be-No Boosters, and we are pleased to cite him.

"The great Lincoln met his end at the Ford theatre by the hand of an assassin, who perceiving the president seated with his private party crept silently up and shot him in the box."

Old Stude: Hello, old timer, do you remember me?

Old Timer: Sure, we used to sleep in the same history class under Prof. Daines.

It is maintained by men present at the R. O. T. C. camp in the summer of 1918, that Professor Sawyer's good judgment accompanied him in to the army and never deserted him while there. In proof of this it is told that the Professor, on a certain occasion while in quest of diversion, thoughtlessly forgot his connection with the army, and failed to report at the camp after the week-end. The situation was serious, but the smiling professor of mathematics struck upon a simple and entirely original idea. He telegraphed at once for an extension of his F. W. O. L.

At the pier an accident had occurred. The small son of a wealthy Jew had fallen into the sea and would have been drowned at once, had it not been for the valiant efforts of a guard who had plunged at once to his rescue. After a fearful effort the boy was saved and carried back to his parents. Loud applause hailed the brave guard. Many looked for a demonstration of gratitude from the rich yiddish man. Some thought he would make the guard a generous gift. True to expectations the father approached the exhausted fellow and within hearing of the crowd, said: "You have saved my Yossuf's life. Ver' is his cap!"

FRENCH CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Le Cercle Français met for the first time this year, Nov. 13. Miss Frangeline Thomas sang a French song and the members of the club played French games. At these meetings all conversation is carried on in French.

Refreshments were served during the evening and the Marseillaise was sung.

year. The exact nature of this is not definite, but it will be public, and quite spectacular, and they claim very, very aesthetic. They have been learning Egyptian and Greek dances, and have some Russian ones coming soon. Miss Carlson has discovered some real talent among her thirty girls, and says that none of them are beyond hope.

Swimming classes are now on, doing a great deal of splashing and just a little real swimming. Miss Maude Anderson does the instructing—everything from keeping the daring ones from risking their lives to pushing the timid ones off the sides, with the cheery advice to "sink or swim."

The classes have been in progress about three weeks, except the dancing class, which has covered practically the entire term.

Inspector Finds Battalion Progressing Nicely—May Be Designated as "Honor School"

Colonel Moore N. Fall District Inspector from San Francisco, conducted a two-fold inspection of the Utah Agricultural College R. O. T. C. last Saturday. In addition to making a personnel inspection of the Cadet Battalion the Colonel reassured himself as to the advisability of making the U. A. C. a permanent Motor Transport school.

Colonel Fall arrived in Logan Friday evening and was met by Lieut. Col. Russell P. Hartle who had made preliminary arrangements for the entertainment of the inspector while in town. The early arrival of the inspecting officer made possible more adequate preparation than has usually been the custom.

Cadet Major Ferris L. Anderson had the battalion formed on Adams field at 11 a. m. Saturday morning and upon the arrival of the inspecting party the cadets were put thru movements in the schools of the soldier and squad under the direction of the cadet officers. Colonel Fall was very pleased with the showing made by the cadets as such an early period in year and even went so far as to state that there was no reason why the U. A. C. should not be designated by the War Department as an "Honor School," next spring. If the men progress as rapidly during the remainder of the year as they have done the first two months it is very probable that some of our men will have the distinct honor of being recommended to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, an honor bestowed upon one man from each institution designated as an "Honor School." This will depend on the diligence with which the cadets pass off the required work. For an early season inspection Colonel Fall is highly gratified with the results of his visit as are the chiefs of the military department.

The College has been recommended as a site for a motor transport school. Colonel Fall investigated the matter and found conditions at the institution especially favorable for a school of this character and will use his influence to have an army officer detailed to Logan as soon as possible to take charge of the work.

The inspector was an interested spectator at the O. H. S.-Freshman football game in the afternoon until he was forced to leave to catch the 3:30 electric for Ogden.

Two non-commissioned officers have been transferred from the R. O. T. C. unit of the University of Utah to the local reserve units. First Sergeant Charles E. Jenkins has had considerable army training and will give the cadets of the infantry R. O. T. C. unit the advantages of his experience. Sergeant Jerome Beatty is the other sergeant who will be stationed at the College. He has had eleven years army experience.

90 PERCENT OF STUDENTS ARE CHURCH MEMBERS

Some interesting figures have been tabulated showing the religious activities of the students of the college. These are taken from records furnished by the students at the time of registration, through the instrumentality of the "Y," cooperating with the faculty of the college.

Seven hundred and five cases are on record. Ninety per cent of these were church members. Five per cent of the remaining ten expressed a preference for a certain church and the other five percent had no preference.

University of California statistics show that 50 percent of the students are church members, 25 percent have a preference for a certain church but are not members of any church, and 25 percent have no preference.

NEW EXTENSION CLASSES HAVE BEEN ORGANIZED

Two extension classes in Rural Sanitation and Public Health have been organized recently by the Extension Study Department of the U. A. C., with Dr. R. O. Porter in charge. The classes will be held in Smithfield and Hyrum.

The classes in Hyrum will meet every two weeks for two hours on Wednesday. The classes in Smithfield will meet Monday evenings. From forty to fifty students, mostly teachers, are enrolled in the classes.

The course is given primarily for teachers, that they may meet the requirements of the Health Education law. Three hours college credit will be given for the work.

Society

Professor Johnson entertained his private vocal students at an informal recital at his home on Third North Friday, November 14. The topics for discussion were celebrated singers and songs. Last Friday the students taking piano instruction were likewise regaled by the genial professor. An enjoyable evening was spent in talking about eminent pianists and noteworthy piano music.

Sigma Alpha fraternity will entertain at an informal stag rush party tonight at their new home on south Main.

Miss Eva Joy Nelson was a dinner guest at the Practice Home last Friday. Pink chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece. Covers were laid for seven.

Last Sunday Miss Melba Aldrich was a guest at dinner at the Sigma Theta Phi house.

Mrs. E. A. Foutz of Ogden spent last week end at the Practice Home as the guest of her daughter Miss Nadine Foutz.

The Faculty Women's League entertained the members of the faculty last Monday evening in the women's gymnasium at their first informal reception of the year. A very interesting lecture was given by Dr. Henry Peterson, which was followed by a social hour, during which several musical selections were rendered. A large crowd was in attendance. The committee on arrangements were Mrs. A. J. Hansen, Mrs. Blanche Pittman, Mrs. M. C. Merrill, and Mrs. J. C. Sorenson.

The Sorosis sorority entertained at dinner Sunday complimentary to Mr. Richard Wells and Miss Laurine Anderson. Yellow chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece. Covers were laid for fifteen.

A few of the members of the Sorosis sorority entertained at a card party last Friday evening at their chapter house, 45 West Second North. Large wicker baskets of cut fall flowers were used in decorating. Several musical selections were rendered. About eleven o'clock light refreshments were served. Mae Wallace and Marguerite Judd were in charge of the arrangements. Those present were the Misses Marguerite Judd, Gladys Hatch, Leone Evans, Katharine Jones, Holly Baxter, Nancy Finch, Helena Jacobs, Luella Thomas, Geneva Volls and Messrs. Ralph Smith, Frank Hayes, Erwin Crandall, Ray Alston, Charles Nibley, Wendell Thain, Norven Strons, McKay, Spencer Eccles, Russell Croft, Osmond Jorgensen and Wilford Carlisle.

Sigma Alpha announces the pledging of Wallace Parkinson and Mr. Hatch.

The Sigma Theta Phi sorority entertained at dinner last Sunday in compliment to Mrs. E. A. Foutz of Ogden, Miss Jessie Bird of Springfield, Mrs. N. A. Pedersen and Mrs. I. S. Smith. A crystal basket of pink roses formed the centerpiece. Covers were laid for fourteen.

Pi Zeta Phi held formal initiations last Saturday night for Eugene Robinson and Maurice Linford. The initiations were followed by a stag party.

The Sophomore class held sway at a "bust" and dance Saturday night in the woman's gymnasium. The decorations consisted of cozy corners and variety of potted plants arranged about the hall. Hot dogs, rolls, hot chocolate, doughnuts and apples were served. Music was furnished by a six piece orchestra. Jennie Reece, as chairman of the committee on arrangements was assisted by Agnes Lindsay and Erwin Crandall. The chaperones of the party were Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Carroll, Lieut. and Mrs. Scott, Prof. and Mrs. C. R. Johnson.

Misses Elma and Erma Bennion entertained a number of friends informally last Sunday evening at their home on Second North and Fourth East. Those present were the Misses Agnes Lindsay, Winona Cherry, Jennie Reece, Maurice Correy, Milton Hansen, Fred Fell, Elwood Jensen and Alfred Cherry.

Alpha Delta Epsilon entertained at a formal rushing party Friday evening in the Bluebird hall. The committee on arrangements was Julian Miller, ElRay Christiansen and Ray Kimball. The chaperones were Prof. Frank R. Arnold and Miss Charlotte Kyle. Fifty couples were present.

Aggie Team Given Welcome Home Ovation

Students Receive Victorious Team With Spirited Demonstration

The Big Blue team was given one of the most rousing receptions ever accorded a home-coming Aggie team, when the battle-scarred warriors alighted from the 3:58 U. I. C. car at the interurban depot Friday. The students went en-masse and cars blocked south Main street for half its length.

As the team stepped from the electric to the street, wild bursts of cheering and music from the band greeted them, and a couple of huskies swung each player to a "shoulder" position and carried him to waiting automobiles, which whirled him away to a good night's rest.

Though the team came home badly battered up as a result of three conference games in close succession, there is no reason for Aggie supporters to feel dubious regarding the outcome of the Turkey day game. The men are in fine spirit, and confident of trimming the "U," and a few days rest will work wonders in mending their injuries, so that by Thanksgiving day the White and Blue will be in fine fettle for the hardest fight of the football season.

PRICE OF BUZZER TO BE INCREASED

The price of the Buzzer will be raised this year. This was definitely decided at a meeting of the staff Tuesday. The price of the Buzzer has remained at $2.50 for the last ten years, and it has become traditional and fixed that it should remain so. But when we consider that there has been an increase of 73 per cent in the general cost of living, and that the prices quoted by the printers, photographers and engravers this year show an increase of from 25 to 50 per cent, it stands to reason that the price of the Buzzer must be raised if it is to be of the standard of other years.

The majority of the colleges and universities have realized that the price must go up or quality in their year book must be sacrificed; therefore the price has been raised. All of the reports have not as yet been received, and the price has not as yet been fixed, but it will be placed low enough so that everyone can have a Buzzer and yet the book will be up to the standard of other years.

December 11 has been set aside as Buzzer day and on that day the Buzzer staff will take charge of chapel. It is also planned to have the December 12 issue of Student Life put out by the Buzzer staff. The work has begun in earnest and some of the pictures of the smaller groups were taken this week.

With the fall farm work done, and before the spring work begins, hundreds of young men and women, and their fathers and mothers as well, will be able to take advantage of these opportunities for training offered by Utah to the people of the West. All students who have had two years of high school work or who are 18 years or over, whatever their school training, may enter the vocational courses. Any vocational student may enter any college course if he can demonstrate to the instructor in charge that he can carry 90 work. Registration dates are December 4, 5, and 6.

FIRST YEAR MEN TRANSACT BUSINESS

The freshman class met Thursday, Nov. 20. At this meeting a committee was assigned the duty of looking after the refreshment interests at the Junior Prom.

The matter of awarding sweaters to the members of the fresh football team was reconsidered and it is likely that numerals will be presented instead of the proposed sweaters. A class reporter was selected and it will be his duty to report the work of the class during the present school year.

Such is Life

DANCE NO. 1.

By "Soraba"

Th fifteen piece jazz band struck up in all its brazen syncopation on "Kavran"—the fox-trot—which sets 'em all to dancing. Blubb—the unsophisticated one, came out of his corner and whiffled over to the crowd. He saw a fair, fair damsel off alone by the punch bowl. Blubb had never danced in his life but he was going to learn tonight or dislocate a vacuole.

"Listen Sis!" he wuffed, "Let's dance this one."

"But I've never met you—" questioned Flossie for that was indeed her name.

"You can't help that, can you Susie?" asked the Unsophisticated One. "We'll not demerit you for it this time."

"Let's go!" and she gave in with a gasp and stepped onto the shining, slippery floor.

"You dance well?"

"It's one of the fondest little things I was ever of," answered Blubb as he missed the saxophone by a fraction of a micron. "I could dance all night and a few hours after that," he concluded and lapsed into a wide-eyed stare.

"What are you looking at?" asked Flossie as Blubb stopped dead still in the middle of the swirl and stared some more.

"What's that bird with the patent leather hair trying to do?"

"He's dancing the fox-trot. Haven't you ever seen it before?" she inquired in her softest little tone.

Blubb hastened to recover his lost ground. "Yes, sure I have. Isn't that what we are dancing?"

Flossie said nothing and then more just like it but her looks spoke volumes as my friend Smith was wont to say.

"Well, I guess it behooves us to struggle on a few more rounds," sighed Blubb as he stepped neatly on Flossie's left foot.

"Don't you think we'd better sit the rest of this out? I'm choking. Let's go and get some punch. Ah-h-h but I'm tired," entreated Flossie, grasping at the last malodorous straw.

"Oh no, let's not. I'm having the time of my life. I think this is the best dance," chivalrously replied Blubb as he reversed and walked backward the length of the hall, narrowly missing a fall as he collided with another pair of dancers.

Just then, with a final wild shriek, the "best jazz band in the valley" came to a dead stop. Blubb and Flossie came on for a few more measures and then Blubb stopped. He applauded uproariously although he was the only one in the hall who did. Then finding that no more encores would be played he turned to Flossie with these words:

"Well, I guess I'll have to go and find another sucker for the next dance." He left Flossie in the middle of the floor and hid himself to the south end of the hall.

"Er—" incoherently gurgled Flossie as she staggered back to the crowd.

PROFESSOR PETERSON TO TEACH AT OGDEN HIGH

Under the direction of the Extension Division of the U. A. C. two classes in Accounting have been organized at the Ogden High School, with Professor P. E. Peterson in charge. The two classes, one in general accounting, the other in advanced accounting, meet every Tuesday from six-thirty until ten o'clock.

The classes have been organized upon the request of Superintendent Hopkins of the Ogden City Schools. There are so many students who have finished the course at the Ogden High School and wish to go on with the work, that Superintendent Hopkins asked Doctor Linford of the Extension Division to organize a class.

There are from forty to fifty students enrolled in the course. Among them are Professor Holten of the Weber Academy and the Secretary of the Weber Academy. A few of the students are working to acquire a C. P. A.

EQUIPMENT IS STOLEN FROM THE ARMY

On or about the night of Nov. 16, vandals entered the R. O. T. C. armory in the basement of the administration building and departed with equipment valued at $42.90. The equipment taken consisted of two hats, five pairs of spiral leggings and six pairs of russet shoes.

The pilferers entered the building by prying open a window and succeeded in gaining entrance to the room or by use of duplicate ones.

Interest Is Being Manifested In Debating

Try-outs For Collegiate Debaters To Be Held December Twelfth

Once more the debating room is the scene of activity among those interested in forensal discussion. From post graduate students to ambitious freshmen, the "learned" are guiding their footstepers thither for an illuminating rummage among the magazines.

Any selection dealing with the salaries of pedagogues, or with the American Federation of Labor is in demand by the would-be argument chasers, for the question to be debated in the Utah inter-collegiate circle and by the classes of the College is: "Resolved, that the teachers of Utah should organize and affiliate with the American Federation of Labor."

The question was chosen by representatives from the U. A. C., the B. Y. U. and the U. of U., who met at the Hotel Utah in Salt Lake City Nov. 15. Prof. N. Alvin Pederson represented the A. C.

Besides the triangular debate with the U. of U. and B. Y. C., we will stage a debate with Montana U. and possibly one with some other institution. This has not been definitely decided.

The tryouts for representatives from A. C. will be held Dec. 12. Each team will be composed of three men, making twelve in all to be chosen. The length of tryout speeches and other details will be announced later. Meanwhile, many are at work on the question and others are thinking seriously of entering. There is much good material for the class championship of the College. The class debates will be held before the holidays.

In the class debates the seniors uphold the affirmative of the question against the juniors. The freshmen and sophomores will meet and the winners of each debate will contest for the class championship of the College. The class debates will be held before the holidays.

THE APPLE UV HIS EYE

th' smilin' doe is now a dad, he's tickled stiff, his heart is glad,
he's plumb o'erjoyed to think that he is the heap-big pop uv a babe so wee.

a ten pound gal has lined his home, and now th' doc no more will roam, he'll stick around, both day an' nite to see that she is treated rite.

he'll number each hair on 'er little head, he'll teach 'er prayers when she goes to bed,
an' let 'er pull 'is big fat nose an' nightly play with 'er ten pink toes.

he'll watch 'is darlin' with luvlin' eyes, he'll give her ectape when she cries an' many a nite he'll pace th' floor walkin' until 'is limbs are sore.

when measles assail th' little tot, he'll stow around, an' worry a lot,
he'll have th' 'croup, an' a case uv mumps

an' this will give her dad th' grumps she'll swallow tacks, an' chunks uv coal, an' sure sate fate down stairs she'll roll.

th' frantic pap will think she's dead when he sees th' lump on 'er little head.

an' all tui quick, as time goes by she'll grow from one to four feet high.

an' 'bout that time in school she'll be learnin' such things as history.

an' later on she'll graduate an' after that, at an early date she'll cum to th' collidge on th' hill or at least i' s'pose she will.

th' sad little tale must now be told, when sweet miss hill is 7 years old a brave young blood cums on th' scene an' carries er off tu 'is den, i ween, ah, 'tis th' story, forever an' aye 'tis better thus, an' i fain must say her dad dun well to keep 'er home until th' end uv this troublefome scene.

Sport Notes

After having a long and varied list of Coaches during the past few years, Aggie students seem to have found a combination of Coaches entirely to their liking. Coaches Romney and Scott work entirely in harmony with each other. The people of Logan, and of the County, are back of them, also. These Coaches, with Joe Jensen as physical director, makes changes in our coaching department very unnecessary.

Reports from Colorado say that the Utah Aggies have one of the most varied offenses in the entire conference. Some of the earlier reports said that the Aggies were weak on defense, but in the last two games the line has held and the backfield has backed them up well.

One of the telegrams that went to the team at Denver said "M. B. B. T. (Big Blue team) mean T. N. T. to Boulder." We'll say they did.

The freshman class brought the Ogden High school to Logan to play football last Saturday. The college didn't have the money so the Frosh decided to put the thing over on their own initiative. Manager Egbert managed the execution and the thing and Bramwell Peck proved himself a capable ticket seller.

Coach Tommy Fitzpatrick watched the game between the Utah Aggies and the Wyoming Cowboys Thursday.

Just one more hard tussle and we go over the top with only one defeat chalked up against us.

The question of where to play the annual football classic between the State schools will come up for settlement in the near future. Aggie students want it here in Logan, next year. It will be in Logan, next year. It will be in Logan, next year. It will be in Logan, next year.

Local high schools are developing a wealth of material that will be available for the Aggie camp in years to come. Several likely men have appeared on the B. Y. C., Logan High, North Cache, South Cache, and Onida football teams. In addition, the older high schools of the state playing football will contribute as now.

Colorado critics are favoring the Aggies to win over the University of Utah. Rickertson, Denver Post scribe, considers Romney's team a stronger aggregation than Fitzpatrick's crew, and other Centennial state writers are of the same opinion.

"When Utah sees our colors float. They'll know that we have got their goat."
